

Kattegat Ship Sinking Takes Lives Of 200

Aalborg, Denmark, June 12 (AP)—Some 200 persons were believed today to have drowned in the sinking of the passenger steamer Kjoebenhavn. A check was being made to find out the exact number.

The 1,600-ton vessel hit a war mine and went down in 10 minutes early yesterday in the Kattegat near the end of a trip from Copenhagen to this port 140 miles to the northwest.

The United Steamship Company (D. F. D.S.) of Copenhagen, which owned her, listed 261 survivors—passengers and crew, many suffering from severe wounds or exposure. Some of those rescued later died.

How many others were aboard was not known. There first were believed to have been 400, but later indications were that about 450 was more likely.

The only full passenger list went down with the ship. Some passengers did not book passage at Copenhagen until they had gone aboard.

Last night police here officially listed 24 persons as missing, including Frederik Graae, 73, a high government official.

An official investigation opened behind closed doors in Copenhagen. The Kjoebenhavn's master, C. P. K. Kil, and 19 of his crew were flown back there last night.

Kil was quoted by a company spokesman as saying many of those aboard and most of the life rafts were thrown overboard when the mine knocked the ship over on one side.

Most of the passengers were asleep when the impact came. Many were trapped in their cabins. Their screams could be heard. Others jumped overboard, parents with children in arms, or clung to the Kjoebenhavn's superstructure until help came.

Tariff Issue Comes To Showdown Today

Reciprocal Trade Act To Expire At Midnight

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Senate Republicans and Democrats squared off for a showdown fight today on the tariff issue. At issue was the reciprocal trade program which is due to expire at midnight.

Democratic strategists privately conceded defeat in their efforts to meet the administration's request for a three-year extension of the law.

A Democratic leader who declined to be quoted by name said his side "lacks a few votes" needed to substitute a no-change amendment for a GOP-endorsed one year extension.

The Senate opens debate on the measure today with the Republicans expressing confidence they can put across their compromise plan.

The finance committee re-drafted the house-approved bill, the President would have to notify Congress whenever he went beyond tariff commission recommendations in cutting import duties. He also would have to explain why.

This compromise, worked out by Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Millikin (R-Colo.), would replace a house provision by which Congress could veto any tariff changes in the President's bill if it did not follow the commission's recommendations.

EX-GOVERNOR DIES

Atlanta, June 12 (AP)—Judge Hugh Manson Dorsey, 77, who served two terms as governor of Georgia, died in a private hospital yesterday.

He was elected governor in 1917 and was reelected for a two-year term in 1919.

Windup Jam Is Tackled By Congress

BY WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Tax, tariff, farm and social security legislation had Congress working overtime today in its drive for adjournment one week from tonight.

The lawmakers want to clear the decks for final action next week on a draft bill, a housing measure and a wide assortment of odds and ends threatening a last-minute jam that might force their return after the political conventions.

The House set aside an unusual Saturday session to debate, and pass if possible, bills dealing with taxation, farm prices and social security.

The Senate was expected to spend all day debating a house-passed bill to extend the reciprocal trade act until June 30, 1949. The administration has asked a three-year extension of the tariff law that expires at midnight tonight.

The ultimate fate of Senate-passed draft and housing bills, meanwhile, may be decided Monday by the House Republican Steering committee.

Both measures are now before the Rules committee and Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill.) has asked the Steering group to decide what bills it wants cleared up for House action before adjournment.

Officers Suspended In Detroit Killing

Detroit, June 12 (AP)—Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy today ordered the suspension of two patrolmen involved in the fatal shooting of a 15-year-old Negro boy several days ago.

Toy said patrolmen Louis Melasi and John F. Boland would remain off the payroll until an inquest is held into the death of Leon Mosely.

"I am not sure whether these officers were right or wrong," Toy said. "A coroner's jury is the proper authority to decide."

The boy was shot as he fled from a stolen car.

Teachers Of Negro Girl Scouts Routed

Get Out Of Town, Hooded Men-Tell White Women

Beaumont, June 12 (AP)—Two hooded men reported to police a band of hooded, robed men entered a Negro Girl Scouts Camp where they were instructors and ordered them "to get out of town."

Circuit solicitor Howard Sullinger said the women, Misses Katherine Nickel of Birmingham and Elizabeth Hams of Knoxville, Tenn., told him about 100 men, all dressed in white robes and high pointed hoods, invaded the camp about 11 p. m. Thursday.

Six or eight men entered the tent where they were sleeping and roused them, they said. A spokesman for the intruders said it was "not proper" for white women to be within boundaries of a camp with Negro women. Sullinger quoted the women as saying:

"After searching their baggage and pocketbooks, the women said, the men told them to 'get out of town within 24 hours.'"

"They were not molested otherwise."

Chief Deputy Sheriff Clyde Morris said his office would investigate the case thoroughly and vigorously.

About 21 young Negro women were attending a training course at the camp which opened June 2. They were unaware of the incident until told of it late yesterday when the course was cancelled.

Strike Threatened In Merchant Marine Over Hiring Hall's

Washington, June 12 (AP)—A presidential inquiry board today blamed the Taft-Hartley law for the deadlock which threatens the entire U. S. Merchant Marine with a strike next Tuesday.

In a report to the White House the five-man board said Maritime employers and unions want to continue their traditional hiring hall system but the employers consider that the new labor law makes it illegal.

The board, headed by Harry Shulman of Yale university law school, spoke of an all-coast shipping walkout as inevitable unless barred by court order.

Korean Fishermen Hit By U. S. Bombs

Tokyo, June 12 (AP)—U. S. Far East air force headquarters said today American planes may have been involved in the reported bombing of Korean fishermen in the Japan sea last Tuesday.

A press statement said there is a bomb training range in the general area where Korean fishing craft were reported hit. A bomber mission was flown Tuesday.

(Korean police said 14 fishermen killed in attacks by nine unidentified planes.)

Sigler Fires Back, But Says Black Can Keep On Wrangling

Roscommon, Mich., June 12 (AP)—Governor Kim Sigler, target of a speech by Attorney General Eugene Black Thursday night, fired back at his aide last night.

Sigler's comments came during a question and answer period at the annual meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors Association at Higgins Lake.

The governor was asked whether he intended to do anything about Black's "constant sniping" at prominent figures in the GOP, including Sigler.

"Peculiar Complex"

The chief executive commented: "I do not believe the governor should bring himself down to the level of Mr. Black. I can not call him in and tell him to shut up. All I can do is to let him talk and let the people of Michigan be the judges."

"Mr. Black is a nice fellow personally, but has a peculiar complex. He has swung in many directions. He has indicted the state supreme court, all the members of the Wayne county circuit court, all the auto dealers of Michigan and he doesn't like newspapers."

"I do not feel the same way Black does. Should I criticize him publicly?"

"I feel the people of Michigan are pretty smart and I have a lot of confidence in the average citizen. Mr. Black has a right as a public official to oppose anyone he does not agree with. But I feel the people of Michigan will eventually understand him."

Black, in a radio address from Port Huron Thursday night, accused the governor of breaking campaign promises.

Sigler made no formal address to the AP editors, but instead devoted his speaking time to on-the-record answers to the spot questions from the newspapermen.

No Fair Races

These were some of his comments:

Horse racing—Sigler stood pat on his previous statements that he did not want to see any horse racing at the Detroit fairgrounds in 1949. "I will not be noncommittal about this and if they can show me they have made every effort to handle this matter I would consider extending the track lease," he added.

Lieut. Gov. Eugene Keyes—Questioned as to whether he planned to run a candidate against Keyes, a constant opponent of the governor's program, Sigler said, "If the people want Eugene Keyes for lieutenant governor that is up to them. I will do the best I can with him."

Prisons—When asked how many more prison wardens were to be fired Sigler said "I think the prisons are gradually settling down."

Passports Denied Ten Americans On Steamer To Israel

New York, June 12 (AP)—State Department agents last night seized the passports of 10 American citizens, and refused them permission to sail on a steamer bound for the middle east.

The 10, including one girl, had booked passage for Haifa, Israel. Departure of the steamer, the Marine Corp, was delayed more than eight hours while agents "screened" 31 passengers of military age bound for Haifa, Alexandria and Beirut.

Of the group, 21 were allowed to sail.

A state department spokesman here said the action detaining the 10 Americans was taken "in accordance with" United Nations decisions on Palestine and the "truce agreement" between Arabs and Jews.

Those not allowed to sail were permitted to return to their homes.

A maritime commission spokesman said the state department was quoting no man or woman between the ages of 18 and 48 would be allowed to sail for Haifa—and that no man between 18 and 46 would be allowed to sail for Beirut or Alexandria.

Marcus resigned from the army early last year. After practicing law a short time, he went to Palestine last January to serve with Jewish forces.

Berlin Freight Trains Stopped By Russians

Raging Columbia River Menacing Industrial Areas

Portland, Ore., June 12 (AP)—The raging Columbia river rose up today in renewed threat to three industrial areas in the Pacific northwest.

President Truman viewed the devastated American flood zone of Oregon and Washington yesterday as these high spots were developing in the three-week battle against the Columbia and Fraser rivers, worst rampage in the U. S. and Canada.

Water from the Columbia lapped at a secondary dike protecting a $43,000,000 aluminum plant east of Portland in Oregon. Soggy levees remained critical along the 100-mile industrial and farming belt from Portland to the Pacific in Oregon and Washington.

The Columbia cracked sagging defenses on its Canadian headwaters near the half-flooded smelter city of Trail in British Columbia. One hundred summer homes were washed away. Levee leakage into the city increased.

U. S. army engineers said Columbia dikes were in critical condition at Richland, near the huge Hanford Atomic Energy Works in Washington. The plant itself was not in danger but the engineers said they were ready to evacuate workers from their Richland homes if necessary.

In Portland, Mr. Truman signed a $10,000,000 emergency housing bill that had been rushed through congress. It will alleviate suffering caused by the Memorial day drowning of Vancouver—most disastrous single blow of the flood wave.

Meanwhile, the toll for the two nations mounted to 33 known dead. Five new victims were added yesterday. One was from Vancouver, increasing to five the number of bodies recovered from the smashed war housing project.

Damage advanced upward through yet untold millions of dollars.

Pay Raise Accepted At General Electric

Eight Percent Increase Goes To 125,000

New York, June 12 (AP)—Leaders of the CIO United Electrical Workers have accepted an eight percent wage increase for 125,000 employees of the General Electric Co.

The settlement yesterday brought to an end 17 weeks of negotiations between the union and the nation's largest manufacturer of electrical products.

The wage boost, which the company says will add nine to more than 15 cents hourly to the workers' current average pay of $55.99 weekly, becomes effective immediately.

Almost simultaneously with approval of the GE wage offer, the union announced in Pittsburgh that it has turned down a six percent wage hike proposed by the Westinghouse Electric Corp. for 75,000 employees.

Edward J. Matthews, International union representative, said the Westinghouse offer would give workers "an increase in take-home pay far below increases" granted by other electrical manufacturers.

The accord with General Electric came three days after the company advanced its wage offer.

House Acts Today On Bill To Extend Old Age Insurance

Washington, June 12 (AP)—The House was set to act today on a bill which might bring 3,500,000 more persons under the Old Age Insurance program.

Rep. Reed (R-NY), author of the measure, said it would permit (A) employees of state and local governments and employees of non-profit organizations to join in the program if their employers approved.

President Truman had asked Congress for a considerably different bill. The president wanted to bring 20,000,000 more persons into the social security program.

He now has on his desk another social security measure, proposing to increase federal contributions to needy aged persons, the blind and dependent children by $184,000,000 a year.

Ontario Fires Fail To Stop Tourists

Toronto, Ont., June 12 (AP)—Authorities emphasized today that no restrictions have been placed on travel in Ontario despite widespread forest fires in the province.

A spokesman for the Ontario department of travel and publicity said the only restriction is on the issuance of permits to go into forest areas where the fire hazard still exists. This, the spokesman said, does not affect most resort areas.

AGRICULTURIST—Einar Sjogren, who will visit Escanaba Tuesday with a delegation from Sweden, is president of the Swedish National Society of Farmers and managing director of the Swedish Agricultural Society. He was born in Koping, Smoland, Sweden. A graduate from Kalmar college and Ultuna Agricultural college, he served as steward at the estates of Alberg, Hjalmarsson, Navekarn and Bryngsman from 1909 to 1924. He also was head of the School of Agriculture at Ultuna from 1924 to 1941.

Trains from the Western zone must pass through the Soviet zone of occupation West of Berlin in order to reach this city.

Six British trains which were held up in the Soviet zone after the new order became effective last night will be released and sent to Berlin as soon as locomotives can be provided for them, the British said.

There are 2,000,000 Germans and 25,000 Americans, French and British in the Western sectors of the city who would be seriously affected by a stoppage of freight shipments.

Clay said the Soviet suspension of traffic came without warning. U. S. officials said earlier they were weighing the situation to determine whether it was another move to squeeze the Western Allies out of Berlin or was just new Soviet red tape of the type which has snarled communications before this.

"I don't know the full Russian intentions," Gen. Clay said. "I intend to find out the facts before deciding what action to take."

Full terms of the British-Russian agreements were not made known immediately. The British said earlier the Russians were "not unreasonable" in requesting that shipments for Berlin be labeled with their exact destinations. They had their exact destinations simply to the Berlin Kommandant.

Truman Confides He Likes Old Joe Stalin

Stronger Forces Blamed For Peace Sabotage

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO

Aboard Truman Train En Route to Berkeley, Calif., June 12 (AP)—President Truman contended today that Russian forces stronger than "Old Joe" Stalin are preventing the Soviet premier from keeping agreements vital to world peace.

In the chatty tone of a man passing the time of day with neighbors at the corner drug store, the President said he liked "Old Joe" and gave this personal view of the Russian premier:

"He is a decent fellow. But Joe is a prisoner of the Politburo. He can't do what he wants to. He makes agreements. And if he could, he would keep them; but the people who run the government are very specific in saying that he can't keep them."

The President said he would elaborate in a major foreign policy speech at the University of California at Berkeley this afternoon on his hopes for eventual understanding between Russia and the United States.

He speaks at commencement exercises at 3:03 p. m., P. S. T., (6:03 p. m., E. S. T.).

The setting for the President's most intimate public appraisal of Stalin was Eugene, Ore. His audience was a group of townspersons clustered about the back platform of his private car along the railroad tracks.

The governor and his daughter, Madelon, left in his private plane. Following them in the state's cabin plane were executive secretary George B. Averill, press secretary Robert G. Applegate, personal secretary Lorraine Daves, and Kenneth Tompkins, state police trooper assigned to the governor's staff.

Nash Automobiles Go Up $75 To $90

Detroit, June 12 (AP)—Nash-Kelvinator was listed today with the big car producers who are increasing prices on their products as the CIO United Auto Workers seek their third round of post-war wage increases.

The company announced last night it was adding $75 to $90 to the prices of Nash automobiles.

Its move came just a day after the Packard Motor Co. hiked its prices and at the same time granted a 12-cent hourly wage increase to its UAW employees.

SCHOOL BOARD BALLOT MONDAY

Candidates Unopposed;
162 Voters Eligible

Only 162 school electors are registered and eligible to vote in the annual school election to be held Monday in Escanaba, in which two members will be elected to the board of education for terms of four years each.

The candidates, Louis P. Groos and C. Gust Peterson, are unopposed and seek reelection to the board as trustees. The terms of the trustees are for four years beginning July 1, 1948, and ending June 30, 1952.

School electors were reregistered last year, and another registration was held this year to give citizens the opportunity to register. The registration was held on three successive Saturdays, and the total for the two-year registration was only 162.

Balloting in school elections in Escanaba is usually extremely light, has gone as low as a total of 23 votes cast. This is ascribed in part to the fact that candidates are unopposed and lack of interest on the part of the electors.

Polling places for Monday's school election are as follows:

City hall—For electors in the First school district precinct which includes the First, Second, Third and Eighth city precincts.

Jefferson school—For electors in the Second school district, which includes the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth city precincts.

North Escanaba fire station—Third school district, which includes all of the Seventh city precinct.

Parents Are Warned
To Watch Children
In Yacht Harbor

Parents in Escanaba are warned by the city police department that children caught tampering and destroying boats and equipment in the yacht harbor will be turned over to the probate court.

Destruction of property is a serious charge and will be handled as such, Police Chief Michael Ettenhofer warns.

In the past few days, reports have come in concerning children breaking locks on boats and using them, pulling at lines of larger craft, breaking and entering the cabins and destroying food and equipment.

"If parents watch their children, and keep them away from the boat stalls, this can be corrected with a minimum of grief," advised Chief Ettenhofer.

Walleye Fishing Receives Another Boost By Becker

Walleye fishing in this area received another big publicity boost when Bob Becker described his trip up here in an article appearing in Friday's issue of the Chicago issue of the Chicago Tribune.

The Tribune's outdoors editor made the following comments: "Harry C. Mitchell, a Waukegan fisherman, says he thought he knew what snappy walleye fishing was in the north country because he has fished several good spots. Then he read a sports article in The Tribune a few weeks ago, calling attention to the excellent walleye fishing near Escanaba, Mich., and he immediately went up to see what was doing up there."

"I want to state that the Escanaba walleye fishing is the greatest I've ever seen," writes Mitchell, whose party caught the limit three straight days, with the fish ranging in size from 2 1/2 pounds up.

swimming around in Bay de Noc after Dud Jewel and other Escanaba residents advised us that in recent years walleyes had increased greatly in those waters. As far as we could tell, nobody is kidding about the fishing in that territory because it is abundant with fish.

However, the first night we didn't connect with 'em when we fished below Escanaba. The walleyes were there, but didn't strike until well after dark. Our party, headed by Bruce Brackett and M. A. Trams of Escanaba, apparently left just before the fish began to get active.

Stormy Weather Helps
The next day, we tried another pocket of Bay de Noc when we drove to the village of Rapid River and fished near the mouth of the Whitefish river, which flows into Bay de Noc. It was a dark, rainy day with a north wind scheduled to whistle around our ears a little later. Brackett snagged a nice size walleye just about 40 seconds after tossing in his lure. The fish hit pretty well that morning in the storm, which finally drove us off the river. The fame of this Escanaba walleye concentration has spread so, fishermen now are coming from all over to fish in Bay de Noc. We ran into fishermen from many parts of the middle west, chugging around in boats, trolling either small wabbling plugs or June bug spinners decorated with night crawlers. Both of these lures take fish.

Area Heavily Populated
The first night we went out to see the parade of fishermen, we counted more than 61 boats on Bay de Noc. Jesel says the fishing for walleyes, which isn't much of a game fish but is great in a frying pan, should continue practically all summer.

Thomas J. Daley, 86, Pioneer, Dies At Home

Thomas J. Daley, 87, of 411 Ogden avenue, pioneer resident of Escanaba, and an authority on the history of the community, died at 1:45 o'clock this morning at his home. He had been in failing health since November.

He was born April 9, 1861, in Owosso, Mich., and came to Escanaba with his parents from the Copper Country when he was 10 years old. He was station agent for the Chicago & North Western Railway for many years and later was an accountant for the I. Stephenson company of Wells.

He was a member of Delta Lodge, No. 195, F. & A. M., and active in the affairs of that lodge.

His widow, Mrs. Daley, the former Isobel M. Blake, and several nieces and nephews survive.

Funeral services will be held at the Anderson funeral home Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. James G. Ward of St. Stephen's Episcopal church will officiate and the Masonic rites will be conducted by the Blue Lodge. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery. The body will be in state at the funeral home Sunday afternoon.

Flag Day Ceremony At Elks Club Tomorrow

Clyde McGonagle, Delta county prosecutor, will be the speaker at the annual flag day ceremony to be held in front of the Escanaba Elks club on Ludington street tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2.

Preceding the ceremony will be a parade, beginning at 1:45 from the Escanaba junior high school. It will proceed down Ludington street to the Elks club. Veterans' organizations and the municipal band will participate.

The speaker will be introduced by Mayor Robert LeMire, and the Rev. James G. Ward, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, will give the invocation.

Members of the committee in charge, headed by John C. Bennett, are John Cleary, Elmer Swanson and William Butler.

McDonald Lynching In American Mercury

"The Lynching of the McDonald Boys" is the title of an article by Dr. Richard M. Dorson, associate professor of history at Michigan State college, in the June issue of the American Mercury.

The article details the story of a Michigan legend centered in Menominee and dating back to 1881. It tells of how the McDonalds were victims of a particularly ghastly lynching after they had murdered a man, and the curse placed on everyone who had anything to do with the lynching. This curse was that they would die to the last man "with their boots on." A ballad came to be written about the affair.

Dr. Dorson is an authority on Michigan folklore and has had numerous published articles on the material.

He visited Escanaba several times while collecting material.

Japanese Princess Tries Housekeeping

Tokyo (AP)—Emperor Hirohito's second daughter is learning to keep house.

Princess Taka, 19, moved in with the family of the former grand chamberlain, Adm. Saburo Hyakutake, three weeks ago. She does all the chores of an ordinary housewife.

"I don't know much yet," she told an interviewer today, "but I am trying to learn all I can."

BERTIL TO RIDE IN PARADE HERE

Ludington Street Will Be Cleared Of Cars

Prince Bertil of Sweden will ride in an open car in the C&NW-Swedish Pioneer Centennial parade to be held in Ludington street at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, Dr. N. L. Lindquist, chairman of the Escanaba celebration committee, announced today.

The prince and his party will arrive in a chartered American Airlines plane from Detroit at 10:30 a. m., and will be taken to the Ludington hotel, where a private luncheon will be held in his honor.

Fred Johnson, chairman of the parade committee, announced that the parade will start at the junior high school and terminate at Ludington park. About twenty floats, three bands and various marching units will participate. The Chicago and North Western railway will enter models of its "Pioneer" engine and modern streamliner.

Chief of Police M. F. Ettenhofer stated that Ludington street would be cleared of automobiles at 12:30 noon on Tuesday to give sidewalk spectators a clear view of the procession.

After the parade, Prince Bertil will speak to a public meeting at the U. P. State Fairgrounds. The Sofia girl gymnasts also will give a brief exhibition of Ling gymnastics. They will present their complete program at the Wm. W. Oliver auditorium in the evening. Tickets for the evening program are selling fast, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce reports.

Retail stores will close at 1 p. m. Tuesday in observance of the celebration holiday. Restaurants are asked by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, however, to remain open to serve the visitors.

Seney

Seney, Mich.—Mrs. E. Tovey and Mrs. A. Nelson attended the wedding of Richard Musgrave and Shirley Anderson at McMillan Saturday.

Garnet Boggs and Mary Ann Pelkie have gone to Marquette where they expect to be employed.

The Home Extension group met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bert Furst. Members present were Celia Tovey, Mae Hutt, Hulda Riordan, Ada McDowell, Jennie Nelson and Pearl Smith and Hazel Furst. Mrs. Johnson, leader, presented the lesson on making lamp shades and each member completed a shade. After the meeting the group enjoyed hamburgers and coffee at the Seney hotel. The next lesson will be on textile painting.

William J. Wellman, South Ford River, Is Taken By Death

William James Wellman, 71 a resident of Bark River, Route One, for many years, died at 6:35 p. m. Friday at St. Francis hospital.

He was born in Green Bay, September 1, 1876. Before moving to South Ford River, he lived at Lansing where he was employed in the capitol. He was a member of the Masonic lodge, No. 33, of Lansing.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Eureka Wellman, of South Ford River, who is now 95 years old; four brothers, Edward, South Ford River; Philip, Seattle, Wash.; Simeon, Escanaba; and Joseph, Detroit; one sister, Mrs. James Brown, of Saginaw. His wife died eight years ago.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home where it will be in state at 7 p. m. Sunday. Services will be held at the funeral home chapel at 1:45 p. m. Monday with burial in South Ford River cemetery. Music rites will be conducted by Delta Lodge, No. 195, F. & A. M.

Demonstrations at Grass Day Program Scheduled June 23

Grass day demonstrations to assist Michigan farmers with the latest production and utilization methods for grass and legumes are being held in all parts of the state, and for this area on June 23 at the Dave Flynn farm at the edge of the village of Harris in Menominee county, it was announced today by J. L. Heirman, Delta county agricultural agent.

The demonstrations are being sponsored by Michigan State College extension service.

The all-day program at all of the demonstrations will start at 10 a. m. and only one short talk is scheduled by an MSC administrator on the utilization and importance of grass at each program. Local farmers committees are working with county agricultural agents and the host farmers at each of the demonstration farms. More than 15 different pieces of farm equipment handling forage crops will be demonstrated.

LABOR LEADER—Nils Goude who is accompanying the Swedish delegation with Prince Bertil to Escanaba, has been prominent in Sweden's youth and labor organizations. He was born in Ununge, Uppland, Sweden. For some years, he was active in Social Democratic youth organizations in the Uppsala and Stockholm districts and national leader of Unga Ornar, (Young Eagles). He was appointed secretary of the information department of the Trade Union Federation in 1941. Goude also has been active in Norwegian and European relief programs.

A Newspaper's Responsibility

A WELL-INTENTIONED civic-minded Escanaban chided the Daily Press the other day for editorializing on the local effect of a supreme court decision outlawing a Lockport, N. Y., ordinance designed to control the use of sound trucks and public address gadgets in that community. This gentleman felt that public interest would best be served by refraining to publish a suggestion that the supreme court in effect extracted the teeth from Escanaba's noise-abatement ordinance when it outlawed the Lockport ordinance.

Because the subject involves a fundamental policy of the Escanaba Daily Press it deserves an open and public explanation. The primary function of a newspaper—any newspaper—is to provide its readers with news and where the occasion requires, to interpret the effect of the news upon its readers.

Suppression of news is rarely within the public interest. If the Escanaba ordinance is unconstitutional in the light of the supreme court decision, as was suggested in the Daily Press editorial recently, then it is the responsibility of the newspaper to call attention to it. The public is entitled to know that fact. Responsibility for correcting the situation lies with the city council.

The point involved in this discussion is much more important than whether or not Escanaba's noise abatement ordinance is legal. It involves the newspaper's fundamental privilege and responsibility to keep its readers as fully and accurately informed on current events as it is within the scope of the newspaper's staff and facilities to do so.

A newspaper that deliberately connives to do less than that betrays its public trust.

Progress In Aviation

AIR SECRETARY Symington has confirmed reports that an air force experimental plane has on numerous occasions been flown at a speed "much faster" than the speed of sound. The top speed of the rocket powered plane was not disclosed but the speed of sound at atmospheric conditions at the height the XS-1 would be flying is in the neighborhood of 700 mph. It has been reported, but not confirmed, that the plane has flown in excess of 1,000 mph.

Aeronautics experts regard the achievement as of the greatest importance because it has broken the supersonic barrier beyond which it has been said that man could not fly in safety. It opens the way for plane speeds that seem almost fantastic—1700 miles per hour and even more.

The practicability of airplanes at supersonic speeds has already been proved. Just how such planes would be used in warfare has not been indicated, but the experience in the recent war proved that slower airplanes were virtually at the mercy of enemy planes with greater speed. In fact, speed was found to be much more desirable for safety reasons than armor.

Vast research still remains to adopt the supersonic principles to military as well as civilian usefulness. Nevertheless, there is a lot of national satisfaction in the knowledge that the American air force is leading the way in the development of revolutionary progress in aviation.

Senate Approves

THE SENATE has approved a two-year draft plan for men in the 19-25 age group. Passage of the bill was made by a decisive margin of 78 to 10, which may be taken as an indication of probable sentiment in the lower house of congress on the draft issue.

The rules committee of the house has blocked a similar draft bill but action is all but certain now that the senate has given its approval to a resumption of selective service.

The draft act as approved by the senate is an emergency measure designed to meet an immediate need. The fact that the law would be effective only two years indicates no reversal of long established American policy of opposition to permanent peacetime conscription. That has been proposed, too, but there is far less disposition to adopt universal military training as a fixed policy of the American government.

The deferment provisions of the proposed law are, of course, far more liberal than draft regulations that were in effect during the recent war. Virtually all veterans would be exempt from service, as well as married men and members of such reserve units as the national guard.

Whether we like a military draft or not, there is no doubt that the present military security situation is serious and that something must be done to maintain the strength of our armed forces. Voluntary enlistments have been inadequate to meet the need so the only alternative is resumption of the draft.

If the world peace situation improves within the next two years, it would be unnecessary to continue the draft law. That, of course, is wishful thinking that hardly squares with present prospects but it is a possibility nonetheless.

Goon Labor Squads Should Be Outlawed

COMMISSIONER Donald S. Leonard of the Michigan State Police, talking to the U. P. law enforcement officials Thursday at Escanaba, pointed out that the problem of policing a strike would be materially simplified if picketing of a struck plant were confined to the actual employees of the plant. This is not required under present law, a fact that occasionally has invited the ridiculous situation of several thousand pickets, many of them comprising labor goon squads, surrounding a plant that employs only a few hundred workers.

Actually organized labor has nothing to lose if such a law were adopted in Michigan. The purpose of picketing is to discourage non-strikers from taking over the jobs of strikers and to advertise the fact that a labor dispute does exist in the struck plant. A hundred pickets in front of a plant employing 100 persons certainly should be adequate to serve that purpose.

The public gain under such a law, however, would be considerable. The cost of policing the strike would be reduced proportionately and of even greater importance is the fact that such a law would almost certainly greatly minimize the danger of rioting. There should be no place in labor for goon squads for this practice only turns the public sympathies away from the union's program.

Fortunately in the Upper Peninsula, organized labor thus far, at least, has shown more good sense than their colleagues in the Detroit metropolitan areas and in the industrial cities of Flint, Grand Rapids, etc. Goon squads are conspicuous by their absence up here and most labor strikes have been conducted in a sane and reasonable manner on the part of the strikers.

EASTERN STANDARD TIME

(Sault Ste. Marie News)

Now is the time for all good Northern Peninsula communities to adopt eastern standard time.

The change of time period of the year has passed, and a survey shows that most U. P. counties have adopted the "fast" or eastern standard time standard for the summer months. As a result, the confusion over time is clearing up. Should the entire Peninsula regulate itself on the same schedule, there will be less confusion.

Eastern standard time should be the year around schedule for the Northern Peninsula.

In the first place it is the time officially adopted by the Michigan legislature. Then again, this time zone provides the peninsula with plenty of late summer daylight, and has not proven at all unsatisfactory for those communities using it during the winter months.

One time zone for the Peninsula will make things easy not only for residents, but will offer more convenience for travelers and visiting, as to bus rail and plane schedules. Ten A. M. in Chippewa county should be 10 A. M. in Houghton county, with no confusing changes in between. There will be no difficult log book calculations to determine if you'll be late or early for an appointment 100 miles away.

Sault and Chippewa county have been on eastern standard time, the year around for years, and when the spring and fall time changes arrive, we go merrily on our way, for we have no worry whether we'll gain or lose an hour on the morrow.

Eastern standard is the only time for the Peninsula.

It's as important that we raise the teacher's pay as it is that she raise our children.

SATURDAY FORUM

Los Angeles: On a recent broadcast, Winchell pronounced the word decadent as "DEK-un-dent." Is that correct?—E. C. K. Answer: It's the second choice of some dictionaries. The late F. D. R. gave it a vogue, for, until he used the first-syllable accent in his many broadcasts, it was seldom heard in American usage. In Standard American speech the prevailing pronunciation of decadent is: dee-KAY-dnt. And decadence is dee-KAY-dnss.

N. A., of Ann Arbor, sends this word curio, a seven-letter word containing all five vowels: enunia. The word is from the Greek. It means "wise legislation." Pronounce it: yoo-NOE-mee-uh.

Another similar word is sequoia, the giant red wood of California, pronounced see-KWOY-uh.

San Bernardino: Will you please give the correct pronunciation of the word assuage?—Mrs. F. T. S. Answer: uh-SWACE, the second syllable rhyming with "age, cage."

Mt. Vernon: So often I hear the word intriguing used as meaning "interesting, provocative." I've always thought that intriguing conveyed the idea of something sinister, of a scheming or underhand nature.—Mrs. F. S. C.

Answer: Literally, to intrigue is to plot or scheme secretly. But in a figurative sense the word is quite proper in the meaning of "to arouse interest or desire; to beguile or fascinate."

Buffalo: Please give the past tense for the verb countersink. My boss insists it's

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—Traditionally, the windup of Congress has become a kind of witches' Sabbath. Anything can happen, and it usually does, in the last-minute rush for an adjournment deadline.

This time the legislative jam promises to be more chaotic than ever. It is not a happy example of the American democratic process to put up in the show window which Washington is today. In sober truth it must be said that it is a shocking illustration of failure.

Conscientious Republicans are deeply disturbed and not merely for the reputation of their party. They talk seriously about the breakdown of representative government and the effect on the country of a pageant of confusion in Washington in a time of world crisis.

In the Senate many Republicans put the blame on Senator Robert A. Taft who has been the real boss since the GOP took over in January of 1947. They say that he was out campaigning for the presidency when he should have been in the Senate steering important legislation through Congress.

NO ACTION ON FARM BILL

One Republican senator, and not by any means a conspicuous maverick, speaking bitterly on this score, pointed out that the Senate might have acted three months ago on a farm bill. But the Senate did not act.

A farm bill was reported out unanimously after careful study by the Senate agriculture committee. It is a far-reaching measure providing for a flexible system of price support with a revised parity formula and reorganization of the soil conservation system. This important bill is now caught in the legislative jam along with housing, the draft bill, aid to education, atomic energy, displaced persons, the reciprocal trade treaties and a number of other vital issues including appropriations for government departments.

Certain of these measures may get through at the last minute. But there is always the danger that hampering or nullifying amendments will be attached and no one could argue that the catch-as-catch-can method is a good way to pass major legislation.

On their side of the aisle, the Democrats are demoralized, their ranks shot through with defeatism and pessimism. They are so little aware of responsibility that they were not on hand in sufficient numbers to force a roll-call vote when the Taber faction in the House succeeded in chopping two billion dollars out of the foreign relief program.

TRUMAN ALSO BLAMED

President Truman in his political campaign tour is making foolish gibes about "riding" Congress with a pair of spurs that someone presented to him. One reason for the sad ending of the 80th Congress is that President Truman failed to work with the leaders of his party in the Senate and House.

Weeks and months would go by when he did not see them. Often they learned of impending decisions from the Republicans. Indifference to the president and his fate in some instances became almost hostility.

Among the divided and disorganized Democrats are many who are keenly aware of Republican sins of omission and commission. These sins, both on the negative and the positive side, are so glaring that a minimum of political shrewdness would be necessary to exploit them. But only rarely does the opposition in Congress avail itself of their innumerable possibilities.

The condition is calculated to give the people of the country all the bad breaks. It is made to order for those who have their own private axes to grind. The sound of the grinding has been loud and all through this confused session.

It is shiller now as the special interests press in in hopes of a last-minute kill. Thus the grazing interests in the west have tossed in a bill that would open the public lands to disastrous exploitation by greatly-increased herds.

In many ways the most serious sign of irresponsibility and demoralization is the action of the House in slashing the foreign relief appropriation. This act made it clear that the leaders of the House—Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Majority Leader Charles A. Halleck, Representatives Clarence J. Brown of Ohio—have not really accepted the necessity for American responsibility and American leadership in a world threatened with a Communist "wave of the future."

What this does, from the immediate and practical point of view, is to add one more explosive element to the perilous log jam that somehow will be broken before June 19. In the breaking of that jam a great deal can be lost.

"countersink."—F. E. M. Answer: Sorry, no. The past tense and past participle of countersink is: countersunk.

More-truth-than-poetry item from a recent issue of the London Dispatch: "When her parents visit Australia and New Zealand early next year, Princess Elizabeth will rule the British Empire."

Hastings: How did the penguin get its name?—C. W. T.

Answer: The name is from the Welsh pen, "white," gwyn, "head," according to Selden (1613). It is likely that the name penguin was first given to the auk, since the penguin's head is black.

LOST AND FOUND—Mrs. Sam Poquette of Trautman writes that she was surprised and pleased to see in the Daily Press a picture and feature story of Mrs. Helen Milligan, formerly of Newberry, now a resident of Grand Rapids. The story, from Grand Rapids, described Mrs. Milligan's recollections of cooking in a lumber camp near Newberry some 30 years ago. The Milligans also operated a boarding house in Newberry in later years. Mrs. Milligan is now 90 years old.

Dunathan

Mrs. Poquette sends along pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Milligan taken when they were cooking at the Carr & Barrett lumber company boarding house at Hendricks, near Newberry.

"I have never seen or heard of them since," writes Mrs. Poquette, "but have often wondered where they were. We spent many hours visiting together and enjoyed her cooking and baking, as everyone did who knew her. I am writing her today, and I am sure she will be as surprised to hear from me as I was to hear of her through your newspaper."

THE OLD MILL—Mrs. Lydia Wick Anderson of Wausau was born June 7, 1885, at Flat Rock on the Escanaba river, and in a recent letter declares that this column has failed to adequately present historical information about the pioneer Delta county community. She calls Flat Rock "The Grand Old Mill," and adds that, "I think I can tell more about the old water power mill than anyone else. I'm the oldest in the Wick family, and my heart is still there."

She recounts the story of Forrest Miller, who seared a sturgeon nearly six feet long while fishing on the Escanaba river near Flat Rock. Then overcome by memories of this community she asks: "Wonder what happened to O'Meara's bakery? They made the best coffee cakes I have ever tasted. They were made in individual squares. I often wish I had the recipe."

For the benefit of the Delta county Historical Society we are encouraging Mrs. Anderson to write her recollections of old Flat Rock days and mail them to Mrs. Nancy Thomas, secretary of the Historical Society.

ORPHANS OF THE FIRE—When fire strikes the children of the forest must flee for their lives. Some escape and some are caught and burned to death. John Chriske, district conservation supervisor, reports that in the big fire near Gwinn last week before the rains, he saw one fawn that had escaped, as if by a miracle, the fire until it came to an open field. The fire, separated and burned around the field—leaving an island of green in the blackened scene of death. On this island the fawn staved, wandering in search of its mother that may have fled farther or been overtaken to perish in the flames.

Men who fight forest fires know that many young creatures die in the blaze. They include deer, bear, rabbits, birds and other creatures too young or too weak to escape.

COOLER WORK—Forest fire fighting usually is hot, dry and Gladstone—Norman Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Peterson, will be among students of Northern State Teachers college who will receive their bachelor's degrees June 18.

Twenty Years Ago

Escanaba—Paul Novack, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Novack, and C. L. Tordeur, turnkey at the county jail, have returned from Chicago with the "American Eagle," Novack's plane. The 300-mile trip was made in three hours and 20 minutes.

dusty work, but when a fire threatened valuable game cover in Escanaba state forest recently, conservation department fire technician John Anguim and two volunteers from Rock waded shoulder-deep river water. They carried hand tools to check the blaze until heavy equipment could be sent around by a bridge. It was one time when fire fighters kept cool at a hot job.

BIRTH AND DEATH—In the big forest fire near Round Lake in the Hiawatha National Forest many woods creatures were burned to death. The toll of wildlife is often overlooked when man starts summing up the fire losses.

George Young, U. S. Forest Service assistant supervisor here, reported seeing young deer running ahead of the Round Lake fire.

Forest Ranger Jim Jay of Rapid River, surveying the burned-over area earlier this week saw two fawns in the burning. They were alive and had apparently escaped unharmed.

Then on the ground he found the burned body of a fawn. The baby deer was so small it appeared to have been born just before or during the fire and had been unable to escape the flames. Its scorched body was mute testimony to the slaughter that fire causes among nature's forest babies. It was a casualty usually not listed among the fire losses, for man seems more concerned with the destruction of trees, of cottages and other tangible "properties."

WITH A HEART—At the Escanaba Paper company mill there stands one corner of a small frame building. The rest of the building has been torn down. Workmen dismantling the old storage shed found a robin's nest in one corner, and Roy Dempsey, superintendent of maintenance, ordered work stopped until the robins were large enough to fly from the nest and make their own way in the world.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—Out on the west coast, the oil boys and the Pauley pals have been licking their chops over the arrival of President Truman and their chance to persuade him to right-about-face on Tidelands oil.

They hope that, with a tough campaign and the Democratic cup board bare, they may be able to persuade the president not to veto a Tidelands oil bill this time.

All of which is doubtful. Harry Truman doesn't change easily. Furthermore, if there was one thing he got fed up on, as a Senator it was lobbyists; and the Tidelands oil crowd have been using the most variegated assortment of lobbyists ever seen in Washington.

Of them, perhaps the wierdest—though one of the most effective—is Dr. Edward A. Rumely, who served a term as a German agent after World War I, was pardoned under interesting circumstances, and who has more recently managed to enrapture a larger collection of millionaires and lesser lights than almost any other lobbyist in the nation.

Rumely operates under the pontifical and high-sounding name of the "committee for constitutional government," and he has been busy as a bird-dog distributing literature supporting the Tidelands oil lobby-literature which he claims is "educational" and therefore income-tax-deductible.

Rumely has been flooding lawyers, doctors and others with pleas to buy this literature, and a lot of them have fallen for the idea—thinking that it could be deducted from income taxes. Whether the treasury lets them get away with it, however, may be another matter.

—WORKED FOR THE KAISER—

The amazing thing is that Rumely has so much influence, despite his earlier prison-record. Educated in Germany, Rumely was active for the Kaiser in the first war, and has admitted under oath to acting as agent in spending $200,000 for advertising in foreign-language papers in the United States to propagandize foreign-born citizens for Germany. He has also admitted paying $3,000 to the late Gaston B. Means (later jailed for the Lindbergh swindle) to spy on British shipping.

Rumely also admitted under oath paying $1,000 of German money to distribute copies of the Irish-American in the United States, and $1,500 to distribute "cotton circulars," the latter calculated to stir up the south because it could not ship cotton to Germany.

Finally the long arm of the law caught up with Rumely when he concealed the fact that the Kaiser had paid him a million and a half dollars to buy the New York Mail and use it as a German propaganda sheet. He was sentenced to jail.

Despite this, Frank Gannett, the New York chain newspaper publisher, has consistently and heavily backed Rumely for years. So has Lamar Fleming, Jr., of Texas, attorney for the Anderson-Clayton cotton firm; Ben Clayton, brother of Will Clayton, retired undersecretary of State together with Harvey Fruehauf, the auto-trailer king; Mrs. Henry Dooley, owner of the Omaha World Herald, and various others. Senator Ed Moore of Oklahoma not only is a member of Rumely's committee, but vigorously champions his ideas on Tidelands oil in the Senate.

One reason for the rapt devotion of this multimillionaire committee for constitutional government for Dr. Rumely, of course, is that they all think alike. Apparently, therefore, the fact that he is an ex-German agent makes no difference. Also, they appear to condone their association by the fact that Rumely was pardoned.

The history of this pardon, as taken from court records, is as follows:

Rumely was found guilty on Dec. 8, 1920 and took his case to the second Circuit Court of Appeals which affirmed his conviction. Later, Oct. 23, 1923, the U. S. Supreme Court refused to review the case. Rumely had been sentenced to serve a year and a day.

Four years after his conviction, Rumely was still out on a stay of execution. But on March 13, 1924, things went wrong and Coolidge refused him a pardon, though under pressure he did commute his sentence from a year and a day to one year, thereby making him ineligible for Atlanta.

Rumely then began serving time at White Plains penitentiary, New York. But on April 11, Coolidge commuted Rumely's sentence to one month and he was released. April 17, 1924. Almost one year later, Jan. 19, 1925, Coolidge granted Rumely a pardon in such secrecy that members of the Senate lobby committee in 1938 didn't know about it.

Scores of other people have been jailed for refusing to answer questions of Congress, among them a number of Hollywood notables. But in the long history of the United States, Rumely is one of only three cases who has thumbed his nose at Congress and got away with it.

Rumely also has been a great pal of D. C. Stephenson, former Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, now serving a life sentence in the Michigan City, Ind., penitentiary for murder. Rumely admits having paid Stephenson a visit in jail, and also admits that he and the former Klan leader were associated in publishing a magazine together.

This is the versatile gentleman who has collected so much money from unknown and undisclosed sources to promote the Tidelands oil lobby and other "constitutional" matters in Washington.

NOTE—Rumely draws a weekly salary of $208 plus $96.50 per week for expenses, plus commissions, which are not inconceivable.

"How could I metcha, ya dope? I never been dead."

Children's commission, examining Mary Maki, while her mother, Mrs. Selma Maki of Rock stands beside her. Other state agencies and local organizations cooperated in making the clinic the most successful ever held here.

Walleyes Strike

Walleyes continue to be the big noise among the fishermen with many and large fish to reward their efforts. The four largest walleyes entered during the past week were: Robert Shinar's 7 pound, 3 ounce fish caught on a home made fly while fishing out from Simpson's south of Escanaba; a 9 pound, 1 ounce fish from the mouth of the Ford River caught on a flatfish by Robert J. Sanders of Indianapolis, Ind.; a June bug and worms accounted for a 9 pound, 11 ounce walleye caught off Breezy point by William Roberts and the new leader in the walleye class is an 11 pound, 4 ounce fish caught off the On-A-Bay cabins by Walter Wilson, Escanaba. The big fellow measured 30 3/8 inches in length and 16 7/8 inches in girth. A June bug and worms was the lure that Wilson used.

Sanders' fish is remarkable in that it came as a reward for persistence. He had made four previous trips into Michigan in search of fish and had been unmercifully "razed" by fellow workers when he failed to connect. However this year he came into the Upper Peninsula for the first time and to Escanaba. He found fishing, not only one big fish but enough to be able to take home very nearly the limit.

In other classes there was little change in the leaders. Marshall Lillquist, Escanaba, entered a 6 3/4 pound northern pike that measured 32 1/2 inches in length and 12 1/4 inches in girth that stands as the largest northern reported thus far from inland waters. Lillquist caught his fish in Round lake on a minnow. The brown trout class has a nice entry in Gust Soderberg's 2 pound, 14 ounce beauty. The brownie was fooled by a dry fly in the Adams pattern while Gust was fishing on the Escanaba river. It measured 18 inches in length and 10 3/4 inches in girth.

'Bite' Now on Lampreys

That "something new" is happening in the sea lamprey situation was indicated this week by statistics from the fish division's weir on Carp creek, near the tip of lower Michigan. Either the finer food fish, such as lake trout, to which the big and ugly parasites attach themselves, have suffered a drastic decrease in numbers or the number of sea lampreys has greatly increased, or both. Basis for this speculation: The catch of 2,000 lampreys at the weir is far above last year's take, and, for the first time, some of the lampreys are showing up with "sucker" scars on them, indicating that cannibalism has set in among them.

Bear Story

"Do Mama" bears subject their young to the Saturday night ritual of the bath too?

Read this from a couple of chaps up at Bergland who were fishing on Lake Gogebic about 11 last Saturday evening and then you make a guess:

They heard splashing nearby. Thinking it was another party of fishermen, they were about to go elsewhere on the lake to try their luck, decided first to check on identity of the commotion-makers. Flashlights revealed several black bears with cubs, frolicking near shore, slapping at the water with their paws.

Question: Were the old ladies giving the bear brats a bath or were the bear families out night-clawing for fish?

Brown Is Smartest

Every fisherman has his own ideas about which species of trout is hardest to catch—in other words, the smartest. Some say the brown, others the rainbow, and may take off their fishin' hats to the native brookie.

Judging by figures based on a Michigan creel survey made last spring, the brown trout wins the dubious honor of being the most difficult fish to deceive, the brook trout is only slightly more cooperative, and the rainbow rates as the dumbest.

These figures, brought to light by George H. Wells in the current issue of Outdoors magazine, were compiled from carefully tabulated results of 53 fishing trips by 17 capable anglers. The fishermen put in 278 hours on several good

North Western's Rolling Museum Will Visit Here

A rolling museum, stocked with hundreds of historical exhibits that trace the vital role of the railroads in expansion of the Midwest during the last 100 years, will visit Escanaba on Tuesday, June 15.

The "museum on wheels" is part of the North Western Railway's Centennial Train which for two months will tour leading cities located along the system's 10,000 miles of tracks.

The two-month tour began May 1, and most important exhibits of the Centennial Train will be exhibited later this summer at the Chicago Railroad Fair.

Hundreds of items showing how the North Western and its forerunner, the old Galena & Chicago Union Railroad company, spearheaded the expansion of the Midwest from fertile prairie lands and dense stands of timber to industrial centers and highly productive farms will be displayed.

This change occurred during the last 100 years, since the "Pioneer" locomotive made its first run out of Chicago, Oct. 25, 1848.

Pre-Civil War days will be recalled by the museum car's largest exhibit, a 200-pound brass cannon used by Senator Stephen A. Douglas during a political tour.

Douglas, who traveled the North Western while making political talks, was the main speaker when the line between Chicago and Milwaukee was completed in the 1850's.

Costumed figures showing the types of clothing worn 100 years ago will be placed throughout the museum car. There will be exhibits which recall early sleeping cars. Railroad brakemen made up the berths on the crude sleepers, there being no Pullman porters then.

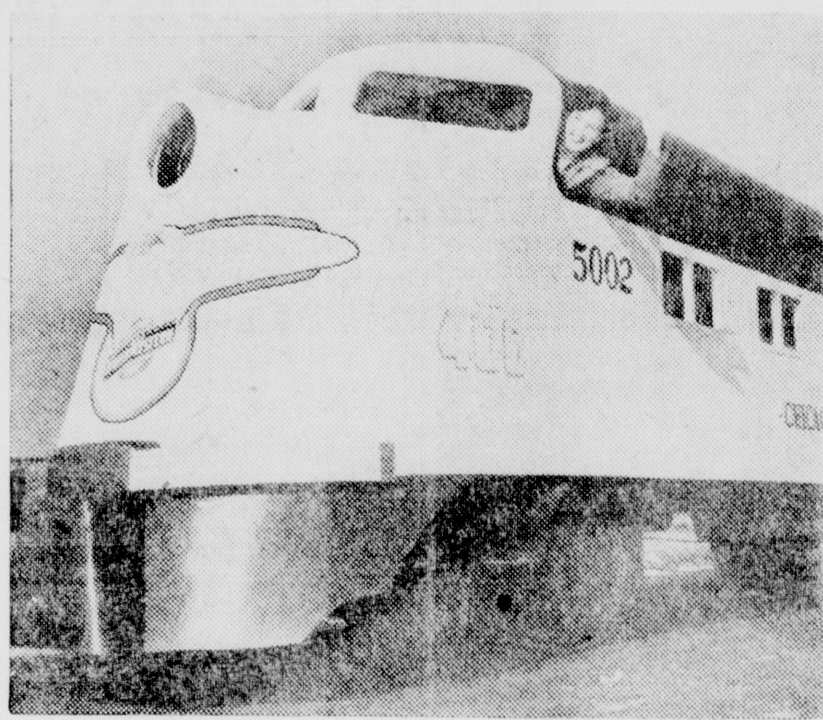

The old Galena operated the first sleeping cars used west of Chicago. The first ones built by George M. Pullman, in 1858, were coaches which he remodeled at a cost of $1,000 each. Upholstered in plush, they were lighted by oil lamps and heated with box stoves. The berth rate was 50 cents a night.

Many of the exhibits are from the North Western's museum in St. Paul, and other items were gathered from throughout the Midwest and loaned to the North Western.

A recent railroad historical contest unearthed hundreds of documents in private hands, and a number of these will be in the museum car.

Historians have endorsed the car as being worthwhile to students because of the vivid way in which it dramatizes 100 years in the development of the Midwest and its railroads.

Some pieces, for instance, illustrate how the North Western piled up an impressive list of railroading "firsts." These inno-

MODEL STREAMLINER—Shirley Glendenning gave the "high-ball" sign from the cab of a gas-driven model of a Chicago and North Western Railway System "400" Diesel streamliner, one of two replicas that will travel on the railway's Centennial Train this summer. The "400" and a model of the original "Pioneer" with tender and coach can be taken off the train for appearances in parades and other celebrations in the more than 50 major towns to be visited by the train during its tour. The parade here on Tuesday, June 15, will start at 2 p. m.

Foresters Attend Meeting At Dukes

Twenty-five foresters and other officials interested in forest management research attended the annual spring meeting of the advisory council of the Upper Peninsula experiment station at Dukes Tuesday.

In the morning several timber sale areas and a balsam-fir-spruce stand were inspected. A discussion of forest management research plans for the current field season was held at the Michigan State college experimental farm at Chatham in the afternoon.

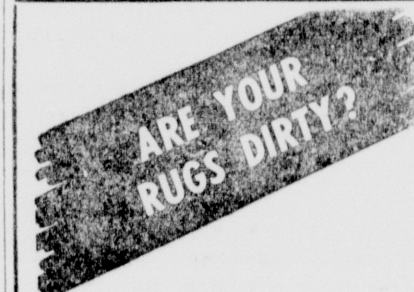

The U. P. experimental forest at Dukes is a branch of the Lake States forest experimental station, University Farm, St. Paul, Minn. Members of the staff are W. M. Zillgitt, W. A. Salminen and L. G. Engle.

Attending the meeting from Marquette were Donald Zettle, regional supervisor of the forestry division of the department of conservation; Richard Hammer-schmidt, Cliffs Dow Chemical Co., and Roy Skog, MSC extension forester.

Others present were Leonard Barrett, head of forest management research for the U. S. Forest service, Washington, D. C.; Maurice Day, Dunbar forest station, Sault Ste. Marie; S. A. Graham, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; Hereford Garland and L. W. Hooker, Michigan Tech, Houghton; Victor Day-harsh, U. S. Forest service, Ironwood.

William Brown, Kimberly-Clark Corp., Neenah, Wis.; Russell Watson and Frank Heinz, Manistique; Richard Evalt, Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co., Negaunee; Bruce Buell, Patton Logging Co., Amasa; Willard Bromley and T. J. Savolainen, Ironwood; William Barton, U. S. Forest service, Milwaukee, Wis.; and Ray Knudson, U. S. Forest service, and Willard Hildebrand, Escanaba Paper Co., Escanaba.

FOR

~FIRST FLOOR PLAN~

'Home Of The Week' Plan
Meets Popular DemandLiving Room, with Corner Fireplace, May Also Be Used as Dining Room

Realtors and building contractors have at last recognized the fact that the great demand in this country today is for small, low-cost homes. That such structures need not be lacking in external charm and interior appointments is convincingly demonstrated in the four-room cottage which the Architects' Co-operative Plan Service introduces today.

This house, named "The Bristol," has a cubic content of 18,000 feet with brass piping, copper window screens, hardwood floors, modern plumbing fixtures and steam heating system recommended by the architect. And if the builder desires to cut corners in construction and equipment The Bristol offers several possibilities in that direction.

Half Basement Possible
For example, instead of a full basement, a half basement could be built, bringing the cost down considerably. As shown in the accompanying sketch, the cottage has a stone finish around the entrance the other outside walls may be surfaced with painted shingles or clapboards and the gable ends with tongued and grooved siding, nailed vertical, to give an appearance of height to the house.

The amount of cut stone and masonry work required around the entrance is not great and this extra outlay is warranted by the improvement the stonework makes in the appearance of the house. Where the building budget is limited, however, owners might be willing to sacrifice the stone treatment, the dressing alcove adjoining the master bedroom, and the large bay-window of the living room. Anticipating such economies, the designers offer an alternate floor plan.

Designed for a small family, The Bristol is quite properly a small house. Its outside dimensions are 25x37.6 feet and it can be placed on a narrow lot. The rooms, however, are of satisfactory size.

The living room is 17.6x12 feet and has for its dominant feature a corner fireplace. Equipped with a circulating heating unit, this fireplace could effectively heat the entire house in spring and fall.

Efficient Kitchen
Adjoining the living room which also serves as a formal dining room on occasion is the kitchen. This room is efficiently laid out. The location of the kitchen range suggests installation tion of an overhead hood and flue, to draw cooking odors into the chimney. A broom and utility closet is located beside the chimney stack.

Off the kitchen is a small rear service entry, from which stairs descend to the basement. A door between kitchen and the rear bedroom gives better circulation from room to room. This is especially desirable for a family with children, giving the youngsters access to their room, from the rear entry, without passing through the living room.

Between the rear bedroom and master bedroom at the front of the house is a small hall, which also communicates with the living room. In this hall a linen closet is provided and located between the bedrooms. In the bathroom with built-in tub with overhead shower, and other modern fixtures.

Master Bedroom
The master bedroom is 14.6x11.6 feet in measurement and is adjoined by a dressing alcove. At one end of this is a large clothes closet that could be cedar lined. This dressing space is missing in the alternate plan, though the closet remains. In either plan, the bedroom is provided with windows on two sides for cross ventilation. In the rear bedroom, a large mullion window provides good light and air.

The main entrance has an inviting simplicity, in keeping with the general design of the house. A glazed upper half in the door lights the small entry within. Here a coat closet awaits the guests' wraps.

In the gable ends at front and rear, an octagonal window (or louvre) affords ventilation of the attic space. Insulation here, and in outside walls, should be given consideration at the time of original construction.

Plans Available
Complete plans for "The Bristol" may be obtained at moderate cost.

To ascertain exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply.

Metal Windows Give Maximum
Light For Basement Play Room

When remodeling the basement to create a recreation or play room, special consideration must be given to lighting and ventilation. A play room with insufficient natural light and poor ventilation will not only be unhealthy, but will lack the appeal of a sun-lighted room.

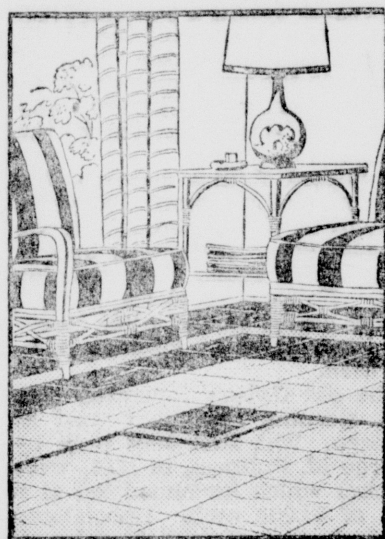

Because basements are often below the ground level, window openings are apt to be comparatively small. For that reason architects advise choosing windows with a maximum glass area, thus obtaining a maximum amount of light. Several types of metal windows meet these specifications, the strength of materials used in their construction permitting a greater proportionate glass area than in other kinds of windows.

Side-hung single or double steel casement windows, two feet in depth may be used when there is little room between the ground level and the ceiling of the play room. If there is even less room, top or bottom hinged windows that range from a depth of about one foot are available. These may be had to open either in or outward.

In some instances it may be advisable to make provisions for window wells. A portion of the masonry under the old window may be removed and the opening equipped with smart appearing steel casements. To get a maximum of light it is frequently worthwhile to paint the walls of the well in a bright color. This assures maximum reflection of light. If there is an open fireplace in the recreation room an attractive arrangement is to flank the chimney on either side with steel casement windows. This is found to add materially to the charm and livability of the room.

HOUSEHOLD HINT
Fruit stains may be removed by sponging with lemon juice and then washing with hot water. If lemon is not available, borax will be found just as effective.

Smart Floors for SMART Interiors

Yes! Like every other feature of a smartly styled room — the floor must be equally smart in color and design. It must blend or sparkle according to its function in the overall room appearance. That's why Wright Rubber Tile floors are so famous and so widely used. They give you a choice of color and design that is years exclusively. Their permanence is so long we can only guess how many years and years they will last. Equally important, Wright Rubber Tile Floors mean the easiest of easy cleaning and maintenance... and that's smart too! See us now for a complete estimate.

COVE-LIGHTING SYSTEM
Cove lighting derives its name from the curved molding near the ceiling line in which the lamps are concealed. It reflects light toward the ceiling, which results in an even illumination when properly designed.

In modernization of a home's lighting system, cove lighting may be substituted for the old type of central lighting fixture.

Buoyant answer to Back Road and Boulevard

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, available at extra cost.

REMEMBER that rough patch of road up yonder where the ruts and ridges make a washboard seem smooth?

Recall the tiring tenseness brought on by the drum and hum of road noise and tremor even over smooth concrete highways?

Well, clock away the miles in this stunningly styled Buick — and meet up with the sweetest answer to such matters this side of cloud cruising.

"It's a ride that's soft and smooth as velvet," folks tell us. And we tell them it comes from a host of things.

It comes from the ample road-weight of a two-ton car built low and wide — and so beautifully balanced it handles light as a baton.

It comes from the leveling buoyancy of Buick's all-coil springing which puts a pillow of deeply coiled steel at each wheel to soak up the bumps and ripples.

It comes from the softness of bigger, lower-pressure tires that cushion away road tremors and roughness — from the sure-footed, swerve-free steadiness of Buick's extra wide Safety-Ride rims, widest in the industry.

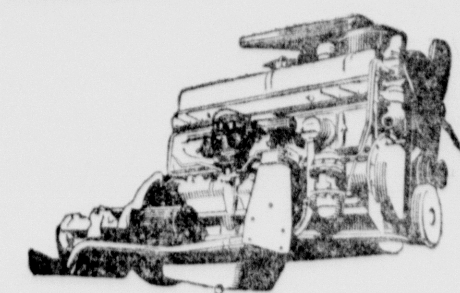

And it comes in special measure from a brand-new engineering gem we call Vibra-Shielding which banishes vibration build-up.

Here for the first time you're freed from the motoring fatigue brought on by tiny tremors piling up into bigger ones. Here your miles are made moss-smooth and quiet — long journeys become mere jaunts.

So why delay knowing the most buoyant answer to any road you ever traveled?

Come visit us now. Know at first hand the distinctive styling, the flashing action, the velvety ride over highway and byway that are Buick's and Buick's alone.

Then follow your heart's desire and get your order in promptly. We'll take it in proper sequence whether or not you have a car to trade.

REASON FOR THE VIBRA-SHIELDED RIDE

Placed with scientific exactness, 3 fat cushions of special composition cradle the engine so as to control its vibration frequency. Engine vibration is thus kept "out of tune" with those that might come from other parts of the car. The result is to shield car occupants against tiring pulsations, cut road noise, make engine sensation almost imperceptible and motoring practically fatigue-free.

BUICK alone has all these features

- DYNAFLOW DRIVE (Optional, Roadmaster Series)
- TAPER-THRU STYLING (Sloper and Roadmaster)
- VIBRA-SHIELDED RIDE • SAFETY-RIDE RIMS
- HI-POISED FIREBALL POWER
- ROAD-RITE BALANCE • RIGID TORQUE-TUBE
- QUADRUFLUX COIL SPRINGING
- SOUND-SORBER TOP LINING (Sloper and Roadmaster)
- AUTOMATIC SPARK ADVANCE • FLEX-FIT OIL RINGS
- TEN SMART MODELS • BODY BY FISHER

Rita Couillard,
Harvey Wellman
Wedding Today

St. Patrick's church, bouquets of gladioli and peonies decorating its altars, was the scene this morning of the wedding of Rita Mae Couillard, daughter of Mrs. William Couillard, 5 University avenue, Wells, and Harvey S. Wellman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Wellman, of 621 South 19th street, Escanaba.

Rev. Fr. Sebastian Maier, of St. Ann's parish, performed the double ring ceremony at a nuptial high mass at 9 o'clock.

St. Ann's choir sang the wedding mass with soloists, Mrs. Thomas Tounsignant and Mrs. Fred Beaudry. At the offertory Schubert's "Ave Maria" was sung by Mary Ellen Servant, Miss Bernadette Cossette, organist, played the traditional bridal marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William Couillard, wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a drop yoke of sheer net edged with a double fold of satin, fitted peplum bodice, long sleeves, extending to points over the wrist and a full skirt with a rounded train. A coronet of seed pearls held in place her three-quarter length veil which was edged with sweetheart bridal lace. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bridal bouquet of lilies, roses and snapdragons with white satin streamers tied in bows.

Her bridal aide wore baby pink net over satin with a matching shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of carnations, roses and peonies.

Robert Wellman served as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Couillard attended her daughter's wedding in a black sheer with a floral print with which she wore a corsage of roses. Mrs. Wellman was dressed in a white sheer with black print and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Wedding Dinner

The bridal party was served breakfast at the home of the bride's mother and a wedding dinner for immediate members of both families was served at the Chicken Shack. A three-tiered wedding cake with a miniature bride and bridegroom centered the flower-decorated table.

Mr. Wellman and his bride left on a trip to an unannounced destination. They will reside at 27 Main street, Wells. The bride, a graduate of Escanaba high school in 1943 has been secretary of the Wells Township schools. Mr. Wellman is employed by the Escanaba city forestry department.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rush and daughter, Jeanie, of Milwaukee, were among guests at the wedding.

Ellen M. Flath
Is the Bride Of
Donald Miller

Traditional white satin and marquisette fashioned the gown worn by Ellen Marie Flath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Flath, 504 South Fifth street, for her wedding this morning to Donald Francis Miller of Milwaukee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Miller, of 601 South Seventeenth street.

The vows were spoken in a double ring service at ten o'clock in the parish house of St. Patrick's church before Rev. Fr. Howard V. Drolet.

The bride's gown was styled with a shirred bodice, sweetheart neckline, full sleeves of marquisette gathered at the wrist and a full marquisette skirt. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a halo of orange blossoms. As her only jewelry she wore a single strand of tiny pearls and she carried an all white bouquet of baby orchids, centered with a single large orchid.

Paula Flath, who was her sister's bridal aide, wore turquoise blue marquisette. Her gown was made with a fitted bodice, rounded neckline and full skirt caught up with clusters of flowers. She carried a crescent bouquet of carnations of shocking pink shade and small flowers in her hair matched the bouquet.

Maurice Miller was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Flath, for her daughter's wedding, selected an aqua shantung suit with which she wore amber gold accessories and a corsage of amber gold throated white orchids. Mrs. Miller was dressed in turquoise with black accessories and she wore a corsage of like orchids.

Breakfast and Reception

Flowers and matching tapers centered the appointments for a wedding breakfast for 50 guests served at the Dells and the Flath home, with its spacious grounds and lovely gardens, was the setting for the afternoon reception. The dining room flower decorations were of all white, with effective arrangements of carnations, gladioli, snapdragons and feverfew. Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Mrs. Anna Kraus presided at serving table with its cut work cloth, silver service and flowers in low bowls arranged with white tapers in crystal holders. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Orval Cox, of Milwaukee.

When the couple left on a honeymoon trip to an unannounced destination, the bride was wearing a dressmaker suit of soft navy blue with navy and white accessories and pinned to her shoulder was a cluster of three baby orchids. The newlyweds will live in Milwaukee at 621 North Fourteenth street.

Guests at Wedding

The bride, a graduate of Escanaba high school in 1944, attended Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette, where she affiliated with Beta Omega Tau, and is a graduate of Milwaukee Business Institute, where she was a member of Beta Chi Rho. Mr. Miller, also a graduate of Escanaba high school in 1944, served in the Navy Seabees, and now is employed by Cutler Hammer in Milwaukee.

Mary Lou Hirn,
John J. Hughes
Exchange Vows

In a nine o'clock nuptial high mass celebrated in St. Joseph church this morning by Father John Hughes of the Church of American Martyrs in Kingsford, Miss Mary Lou Hirn, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hirn, became the bride of John J. Hughes, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hughes of Gladstone Route One.

The bride, who wore a dusty rose suit with a small bouquet of roses and carnations, was given in marriage by her brother, Marvin Hirn. She was attended by Mrs. Clyde Hirn, who wore an aqua suit, and a small bouquet of carnations.

Miss Eva Cossette, church organist, played the traditional processional and recessional, and solos of the mass were sung by Miss Doris Costley, Mrs. Ray Olson and Mrs. Frank Hirn. At the offertory Yon's "Ave Maria" was sung by Frank Hirn.

The celebrant of the nuptial mass is a cousin of the bridegroom.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Hughes wore a brown and white tailored dress with matching accessories and a corsage of roses.

Wedding Dinner

A wedding breakfast was served at the Hughes home, and a wedding dinner for 45 at the Log Cabin.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. On their return they will make their home at 417 South 16th street. The bride has been secretary to Atty. C. E. Lewis and the bridegroom is in the employ of the Escanaba Paper company.

Among out-of-town guests were Marvin Hirn and Judith, Marvin Jr., and Phyllis Hirn, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hirn of Green Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Roland of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, and Miss Jane Hughes of Marquette. St. Ignace Girl
Is the Bride of
James Anzalone

Lilies, tulips, spirea and peonies in an effective arrangement graced the altars of St. Ignatius Loyola church at St. Ignace for the wedding this morning of Virginia Margaret Corp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Corp, 79 Spring street, and James Francis Anzalone of Escanaba, son of Mrs. Nona Anzalone, 1317 First avenue south.

The vows were exchanged before Rev. Fr. Nolan McKeivitt, who was celebrant of the 9 o'clock nuptial high mass. Before the mass the combined junior and senior choirs sang "Ave Maria, O Maiden, O Mother," and at the Offertory the Academy choir sang "O Domina Mea." The traditional bridal marches were played by the church organist.

The bride's sister, Elvira, was maid of honor, and Laura Corp and Virginia Luepnitz, bridesmaids, Gerald Anzalone, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man at the wedding and ushering were Theodore Henry of Escanaba and Capt. Theodore Everson of St. Ignace.

Bride In Ivory Satin

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, was gowned in ivory slipper satin, styled with a fitted bodice, long tapering sleeves, bustle back and full length train. Her two tiered veil was attached to a pearl beaded Juliet cap. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, the bridegroom's gift. She carried a mixed bouquet with satin streamers. The maid of honor wore pink taffeta and the bridesmaids, green and yellow taffeta, the gowns made with fitted bodices, bertha collars which formed cap sleeves and gathered skirts. The maid of honor carried a mixed bouquet and the bridesmaids, colonial bouquets.

Mrs. Corp wore gray crepe with pink accessories and a pink corsage for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Anzalone wore black with pink accessories and a like corsage.

The wedding breakfast for 30 guests was served at the Twin Acres tea room, the tiered wedding cake and flowers decorating the table.

Trip Through Middle West

Mr. Anzalone and his bride, following a trip through the middle west, will live in Escanaba at 1317 First avenue south. The bride has been employed as desk clerk at the Travelers' hotel, St. Ignace and as organist at St. Ignatius church for the past three years. She is a graduate of the Ursuline Academy, Our Lady of the Straits, St. Ignace. Mr. Anzalone, a graduate of Escanaba high school, served in the United States Army with the rank of Captain for three years, one of which was spent overseas.

Guests at the wedding included Mrs. Agnes Kell of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Anzalone, Marquette, Mrs. Nona Anzalone, Mr. and Mrs. John Anzalone, Ted Henry and Tom McDonough, Escanaba; and Miss Betty Lou Sill of Luxemburg, Wis.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Crepeau, 211 Stephenson avenue, are the parents of a daughter, Sandra Lind, weighing seven pounds and fourteen ounces, born at St. Francis hospital June 11. The baby is the first child in the family and is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crepeau. Mrs. Crepeau is the former Theresa LaFave.

CLASS OF 1948 IS GRADUATED

Lansing C-C Secretary Is Commencement Speaker

"Not Good If Detached," was the theme of an unforgettable lesson expounded before the members of the graduating class of Manistique high school at commencement exercises Friday evening by C. W. Otto, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Lansing, speaker of the evening.

The speaker stated that he had come upon this thought one evening when he chanced to look upon the stub of a bus ticket. At that time he had scored a big success, he said, and was literally "walking on air" when he suddenly asked himself "Where would I be if I were detached from all the folks who made my success possible?"

He admonished the young people never to think in terms of self alone, using as an illustration the football player who was lauded by his school as one of the country's great and who replied that he never would have attained success were it not for the interference provided by his teammates who played less spectacular roles.

In conclusion he stressed two virtues from which no graduate should ever become detached. They are "Responsibility" and "Dependability." He illustrated his point with a story about the people who were to provide wine for a feast. One of them said "Why should I deny myself that which is my own when no one will be the wiser?" So he put water in the vat instead of wine. And it so happened that everyone did the same thing and there was only water for the feast. It is reliability and dependability or the lack of them, that spells success or failure, he said.

The diplomas were presented the 75 graduates by Robert Berger, president of the board of education.

Preceding Mr. Otto's address was an invocation by the Rev. Fr. L. H. Behrendson and two vocal numbers by the Senior Glee Club. Miss Margaret Burgess sang a solo immediately after the address. Supt. A. F. Hall introduced the speaker.

COMPENSATION CASE DELAYED

Will Resume Hearing On June 19

The hearing, involving unemployment compensation claims of employees of the Inland Lime & Stone Company, started Friday morning at the court house here, was adjourned to 9:30 on the morning of Monday, July 19.

This action was taken by O'Hara about 2:30 yesterday afternoon after preliminary questions dealing with jurisdiction, representation and basis for action were discussed and decided upon.

Gene Saari, representing the employees' union, entered strong objection to the delay, protesting that much time had already passed since the hearing on claims was due. O'Hara, in answer stated that no useful purpose would be served in hearing the case at this time as he had been apprised of its nature but a few days ago, and he wished to become more familiar with it. He added that more time would be taken up with the hearing than he would have at his disposal at this time and his time from now until the week of the 19th would be taken up with other hearings. He promised that when the case would come up it would be allotted all the time needed. Saari, and George Wood, of the law firm of Herbert & Wood, representing the Inland Company, then agreed that the morning of June 19 at 9:00 o'clock would be acceptable.

The purpose of the hearing is to determine if the claims of union members for compensation while operations at the plant were suspended are valid.

Members of the union, to an extent not as yet fully determined, have filed individual claims asking that they be paid unemployment compensation between the first of the year and April 7 while the plant was idle.

At the time the plant was closed, employees were notified of the company's action by a notation to their pay checks the cause for the action being given as a labor dispute.

TEEN-AGE

SCIENTISTS

THE race in scientific preparedness is on. The ever-expanding fields of electronics, atomic energy, medical research, chemistry and engineering are making urgent calls for new workers. Youth is answering the summons. Throughout the nation, in high school laboratories, science-minded boys and girls are at work seriously, bending over test tubes, studying atom charts, solving intricate formulas in expanding programs designed to prepare them for continued study in colleges and eventual careers in science. Many educators, aware of the critical shortage of trained scientists, are striving to fill the gaps. Some cities are taking the lead in youth science training. The Philadelphia Plan is one of these. Under this plan, science-talented students are being helped to develop their talent. They are given more specialized training, are taken on tours of science museums and industrial laboratories. Other cities are observing the experiment, and if successful, the movement is destined to expand nationally. In New York City, a special school—the Bronx High School of Science—has for ten years been grooming youth for careers in science. There are now 2350 boys and girls—a record number—all of whom are majoring in physical and natural sciences. The classroom scientists of the two cities are pictured here.

YOUNG SCIENTISTS. Alex Kisch, left, and Edward Futterman conduct tests involving transfer of bacteria in the biology lab at the Bronx High School of Science.

SCIENCE TOUR. Philadelphia high school science students supplement classroom work by visits to Academy of Natural Sciences. Here they examine native mammals.

BREAD ANALYSIS. In Philadelphia, at the Girls' Little Flower Catholic High School, seniors Caroline E. Brownholtz and Julia Curtin make study of constituents of bread.

HAND MADE. Victor Faggella, a senior, is constructing a microscope in the science technique laboratory of the Bronx school. He made all the parts except the lenses.

LIVE SUBJECTS. Edward Cahill feeds rats in an experiment in nutrition he is conducting at the Bronx high school of science.

CLOSE STUDY. Seniors at the Bronx High School conducting experiments in histology.

PLANT STUDY. Demetrios Kambos is studying plant diseases in biology lab at the Bronx school. He removes sick plant.

COUNCIL MEET
IS IMPORTANTBudget Among Pressing
Matters To Settle

What a number of members of the city council declare will likely be the most important council meeting of the year, will be held at the city hall next Monday evening.

Up for consideration will be the adoption of the 1948-49 budget and the establishment of the city tax rate. Also involved in this matter are the fixing of the salaries of city employees and other matters involving expenditures for the coming year.

The city board of review, composed of members of the council concluding its session Saturday morning. Four days were spent in reviewing valuations of real and personal property and set by the board. Some of these matters are also due for consideration at Monday night's meeting.

Mrs. A. Rodmanich
Injured In Fall
From Moving Truck

Mrs. Anna Rodmanich, 56, of the Tannery Location, was injured Thursday afternoon when she fell from a truck driven by Ray Martin.

Martin, who drives a truck for the Quick Electric Company, had offered Mrs. Rodmanich a ride to town and she had accepted. When the truck was making the turn on Maple street at the cheese factory, the door swung open, Mrs. Rodmanich lost her balance and fell out. She sustained a number of bruises about the head and face, but none of them was of a serious nature.

Mercury Climbs To 89
On Mississagi River

BY PHIL RICH

Upper Green Lake (Mississagi lodge) — There are 23 lakes here forming the headwaters of the Mississagi river watershed. You can go from one lake into another with minimum difficulty.

This spot is in the Chapleau-Sudbury district but near the village of Biscotasing. When I say "near" I mean 55 to 60 miles via canoe. But it is only 30 air miles and an easy trip as we can testify.

Although Biscotasing is a small place in a n y Michigan people w 111 recognize the name because it has long been the starting point for canoe trips down the Mississagi river.

It does have a good train service. Most of the canoe and plane service originates from Sudbury.

June 1 we had a full day of fishing. The weather was really something for this country—the thermometer stood at 89. The water as usual, however, was only a little less than ice. The sun was bright.

We all went out early . . . that means 6 a. m. At night when we got back there was an assortment of fish. The lakers ran up to a maximum of 11½ pounds—good fish, but not especially large. But there were plenty of them smaller—in the five to seven-pound category.

One guest here at the lodge was elated with a 13½-pound northern pike. Some of them came in with long strings of pike, I asked Dick Harbold and Gene Stauffer, who run the camp, what in the world they would do with all those pike. "Oh, they'll freeze them and take 'em home," he said. They have a large freezer unit here to do the job. Also an electric light plant.

This is the first full season for them to get started and the place is rough but very convenient. Both lads came from the states. Many of their guests come from Ohio. A feature of this camp is the Finnish steam bath. After a bout with the black flies and heat, it is a fitting finish to a day. These bath houses all work about the same. You throw the water on hot stones, mounting to the hotter, higher part of the room on steps built like bleachers. You take along a wet rag and some cold water so you can breathe and make it as hot as you like. End of the process is jumping into the lake or throwing cold water on each other.

When we noted the swarms of black flies up here we mentioned it to one of those in our party. "These are not the worst ones," he said, "just the odd one will bite you." Odd one indeed! One of our party had an open-type pantleg and last night I noticed in the steam bath that the black flies had crawled up above his sockline and drilled his leg round about like a woodpecker on a tree. And they do itch!

Dave Roberts and I were down the lake and Dave claimed that I had the 612 on so thick the flies were drowning in it. Anyhow this dope did help but did not keep them off. They'll crawl up under one's hat, get down your neck, up your pantleg, and into some of the strangest places and bite like fury. Several of us have neat red rings just below the hatbands where sweat washes away the fly dope. I have found smoking is a good way to keep these black flies off but unfortunately I quit this habit some months ago.

Joe Brooks and I did some fishing yesterday. Joe hails from down Baltimore way. He is a great "fly man." Joe used a yellow streamer and hooked into two or three good ones. One of these would do close to eight pounds, he thought. Catching lake trout on flies is something new. Now they're on the shoals. Later they'll be in the deep.

Most of the boys up here use a daredevil type spinner or redeye for both pike and lake trout.

Bride - Elect - Announcement is made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Shirley Mae Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Clark, 1102 Minneapolis avenue, to Harold W. Petrusky, son of Mrs. Johanna Petrusky, Milwaukee. The wedding will take place in Gladstone on June 19. (Ridings Photo).

Escanaba-Chatham Twin Bill Sunday

If you have any relatives in or near Chatham or if you just like to see a good baseball game—two baseball games—don't fail to stop by the city diamond adjacent to the Escanaba high school athletic field tomorrow afternoon.

It will be "Chatham Day" and a doubleheader is the bill of fare for the afternoon.

At 1 o'clock, Coach Al Ness' Escanaba Cubs will square off against the Chatham junior team in a Tri County Junior Baseball league engagement, and at 2:30 Manager Pete Derwin's Escanaba Bears will hit the field to tangle with Chatham in a Rainbow league encounter.

Gladstone Is Host To Rock Juniors In Tri County Battle

Gladstone, June 12—The Rock junior baseball team competes at Gladstone Sunday to clash with the Gladstone juniors at the Bay Shore diamond.

The locals looked exceptionally good in practice Thursday night, giving a good account of themselves in a game with the Red Sox.

Following the practice the team organized and Pete Sarasin was named president of the club, Jim Schram treasurer and Dick Stade, secretary. Ray Alwood was named as field captain.

Pete Sarasin will be on the mound for the Gladstone team Sunday and Dick Stade will be behind the plate to receive his slants.

KATHERINE'S BACK—Katherine Rawls executes a graceful dive into a Miami Beach pool, where the versatile veteran is training for the trials which she hopes will take her to the Olympic Games in London this summer. The Fort Lauderdale star, holder of many swimming and diving championships, will compete only in diving. She was a member of the U. S. women's swimming team in the Games in Berlin in 1936.

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Ronald Olson, former member of the Delta County National Guard unit who enlisted in the Army a few months ago, has suddenly blossomed into a golfer of some renown in Army circles.

The young fellow, who used to caddy at the Escanaba Golf club, qualified fifth high in a field of 25 competing at the Memorial Road Country club in Columbia, Ga., for the right to enter the Third Army golf tournament in Washington, D. C. next month.

His 54-hole qualifying score was 36-35-38-41-40-44—234, which constitutes fairly good punching in any amateur league. Olson is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., as a personnel clerk in the student training regiment.

Don Feller, Escanaba pro, says he remembers Olson very well but not as a golfer. He was an active caddy, but he did not know that he played the game very much.

All of which provides further proof that caddying is a good introduction to the game to those who desire to string together a few pars in their more mature years.

Feller, incidentally, had a par 36 on his home course the other evening with three pars, three birdies and three bogeys. Add 24's shot at the Escanaba course: Ray Hirm with a 4-1-2 start against a par of 5-4-3

(three straight birds) and Elmer Swanson.

Watch out for Eddy Gravelle at Highland. He's a beginner golfer but he's coming up fast. Eddy had a 41 the other day that included six one-putt greens, two two-putters and one three-putt. The eight-iron approaches were stopping dead to the pin for gimmies or near-gimmies. That bowling precision must come in handy.

We played the Highland golf course the other day for the first time with Bud Stade and was much impressed with its beauty, exactness and "cushion" fairness. It's a good test of golf, 3,200 yards in length, and the variety it offers makes it an enjoyable course to play.

Pat House has promised to keep us informed of the golfing goings-on at Highland.

Now we've got to get over and try the Gladstone course some time. Indian Lake at Manistique next and then we'll know how many strokes to ask for should we ever get caught by some sharpie on any of those respective courses.

People's Bar and Taverns hold top positions in the American league as local softball loops move into their third week of play.

In the National league, Hughes-Tomlinson is in first place, the only undefeated team in either circuit, with an enviable record of five straight victories.

White Birch furnished the week's biggest surprise by edging the league-leading People's Bar, 2 to 1, at Flat Rock. Northland Stores displayed plenty of power in knocking K-C from the ranks of undefeated in a feature game at Memorial Field Wednesday.

Next Thursday night the co-leaders of the American league, People's Bar and the Taverns, clash at Memorial Field in the finale at 8:45. The headliner Monday evening brings together the two best teams at Memorial Field.

Tuesday night promise plenty of action with the Paper Mill-White Birch clash holding the spotlight. Wednesday night the VFW is rated an outside chance to snap the five-game winning streak of Hughes-Tomlinson.

The National Guard has dropped out of the National league because of inability to round up enough players and all teams who would have met the Guardians in the first round of play will be given credit for a victory.

The schedule for next week follows:

Monday—Nu-Way Cleaners vs. People's Bar at Memorial Field, 7:30. Berigan, Larmays vs. Merchants at Memorial Field, 8:45. Berrigan, Paper Mill vs. Clairmonts at Royce, LeCaptain vs. Birds Eye at Dock Diamond, Gardner vs. Escanaba Township vs. K of C at Ludington, LeCaptain vs. DeGrand Oil vs. National Guard (Victory for Harnies), Larmays vs. Taverns at Royce, Berrigan.

Thursday—DeGrand Oil vs. Clairmont Transfer at Memorial Field 7:30. Gardner vs. Peoples Bar at Memorial Field 8:45. Gardner, Delta Hardware vs. Birds Eye at Webster, Berrigan.

Friday—Northland Stores vs. Harnischfeger at Ludington, LeCaptain vs. Paper Mill vs. Larmays at Royce, VanEffen, White Birch vs. Nu-Way Cleaners at Dock Diamond, Rangette.

Will Hard Luck Continue To Dog Poor Sam Snead?

Los Angeles, June 12 (AP)—Will hard luck continue to dog Sam Snead in the U. S. Open Golf championship?

The final 36 holes of the big fairway derby got underway today and the big question was expected to be answered about the time dusk began setting in on the Riviera course.

Slammin' Sam, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., held a one stroke lead as he teed off for the third round. His 138 for 36 holes was compiled with a pair of 69's. He was four under par for the distance. The 7020-yard long layout plays to a standard 71.

Two tough rounds within the day's span faced the 57 survivors. Snead had the stamina to come through with colors flying. But misfortune has camped at his doorstep in the past. In the 1937 open at Detroit he finished second to Ralph Guldahl's record setting 281. The latter finished with a late rush after it appeared Snead was the new champ.

In 1939 at Philadelphia, Snead took an 8 on the 72nd hole whereas a normal par 5 would have won him the title. And at St. Louis last year, he missed a 30 ft. inch putt for the win, then lost to Lew Worsham in the playoff.

Treading on his heels were the tournament favorite and PGA champion, Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., and Bobby Locke of Johannesburg, South Africa. The 1939's armed each with a formidable scoring weapon.

Little Jim Turnesa of Elmsford, N. Y., was nicely placed with 71-69-140.

Defending champion Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa., was within striking distance with a 141. Tied at the same count were the leading amateur and recently-crowned British amateur titleholder, Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O.; Jimmy Demaret of Houston, Charles Congdon of Tacoma, Wash., and George Schneider of Ogden, Utah.

MICHIGAN SCORES

Los Angeles, June 12 (AP)—The following second-round scores were turned in by Michigan entries in the U. S. Open golf championship:

M. J. (Chuck) Harbert, Northville, 72-72.

Horton Smith, Detroit, 75-74-149.

Robert Gajda, Royal Oak 79-75-154.

Frank Pepp, Jr., Grosse Pointe Farms, 78-75 (withdrew).

Mike Dietz, Grosse Pointe Farms, 73-76-149.

Ed Furgol, Royal Oak, 7-73-148.

Jim Johnson, Farmington, 76-71-147.

Art Did It!

Two games are in those who attend Memorial Field Sunday night. The first game will be between Delta Hardware and Nuway Cleaners at 7:30. The Hardware defeated the Nuways in their first league game, 5-4.

In the second game Ted's Shell of Negaunee will play the Escanaba Merchants at 8:45. The Merchants are last year's Texaco Stars who defeated Ted's Shell, 14-6.

Redskins Lose, 9-3, To Nahma; Play at Munising Tomorrow

Gladstone, June 12—The Gladstone Redskins of the Rainbow league took it on their collective chin from the Nahma nine of the Bay de Noc circuit in a feature game played here last evening.

The score was 9-3.

Gladstone, victim of two straight 2-1 losses in regular Rainbow play the last two Sundays, will try to get back into winning stride against Munising on the latter's diamond tomorrow afternoon. It will be a regular Rainbow tilt.

Other Rainbow games on tap tomorrow are Chatham at Escanaba, Marquette at Manistique, Gwin at Trenary and Diorite at Negaunee.

Citation Goes After Belmont Today To Complete Big Three

New York, June 12 (AP)—Citation, Calumet farm's wonder horse which took the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness with ease, today will go after the $100,000 Belmont Stakes, the final test in racing's triple crown.

A bulging crowd of 60,000 is expected to jam majestic Belmont course to see if what everybody says about the Calumet speedster is true.

Eight others, including Citation's stablemate, Coaltown, have been entered for the mile and one half test for three-year-olds.

How many will parade postward at 4:45 p. m. (EDT), remains to be seen.

Others entered were Glen Riddle farm's Faraway, W. L. Brann's Escadru, Belair Stud's Golden Light, A. J. Sackett's Gasparilla, C. V. Whitney's Vulcan's Forge, William Helis' Salmagundi, and King Ranch's Better Self.

The reason the depth of a body of water is so deceptive to human vision is that water "bends" or refracts light.

Houtteman Finally Wins One, But He Had To Bat In Winning Run Himself

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Young Art Houtteman of the Detroit Tigers finally has a victory—but he had to bat in the winning run himself to get it.

His single in the tenth inning drove Pat Mullin from third to give Detroit a 7 to 6 victory over the Washington Senators last night.

UIM Names Canham, McCoy To Vacated Athletic Positions

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 12 (AP)—The University of Michigan came up today with two new head coaches from its own athletic family.

Don Canham, 29, one-time high jump star and assistant to former head coach Ken Doherty, was named to fill the vacancy caused when Doherty accepted a similar position at the University of Pennsylvania

Escanaba-Chatham Twin Bill Sunday

If you have any relatives in or near Chatham or if you just like to see a good baseball game—two baseball games—don't fail to stop by the city diamond adjacent to the Escanaba high school athletic field tomorrow afternoon.

It will be "Chatham Day" and a doubleheader is the bill of fare for the afternoon.

At 1 o'clock, Coach Al Ness' Escanaba Cubs will square off against the Chatham junior team in a Tri County Junior Baseball league engagement, and at 2:30 Manager Pete Derwin's Escanaba Bears will hit the field to tangle with Chatham in a Rainbow league encounter.

Gladstone Is Host To Rock Juniors In Tri County Battle

Gladstone, June 12—The Rock junior baseball team comes to Gladstone Sunday to clash with the Gladstone juniors at the Bay Shore diamond.

The locals looked exceptionally good in practice Thursday night, giving a good account of themselves in a game with the Redskins.

Following the practice the team organized and Pete Sarasin was named president of the club. Jim Schram treasurer and Dick Stade, secretary. Ray Alworden was named as field captain.

Pete Sarasin will be on the mound for the Gladstone team Sunday and Dick Stade will be behind the plate to receive his slants.

Baseball Stars Of Yesterday

Batting—Ted Williams, Red Sox—drove in seven runs on three doubles, a single and a walk in Sox's 12-4 victory over Chicago.

Pitching—Herm Wehmeier, Reds—gained his fifth win without a loss in pitching Cincinnati to a 12-1 five hit triumph over Philadelphia.

Everybody and his brother will be there from Chatham, and judging from the turnout for the Diorette clash last Sunday when Jack Beck bested Bob Laakso with a masterful two-hitter, a goodly local crowd is likely to appear to make this affair one of the high spots of the season.

It is gratifying to Escanaba baseball fans that both Escanaba teams are undefeated to date, and they'll be out for a twin win in tomorrow's twin bill to keep their records clear.

The Bears are sitting on top of the Rainbow heap with four consecutive victories, the only undefeated team in the circuit, and the Cubs are tied with Rock and Chatham for the Tri County junior wheel lead with one victory each.

FLAG CEREMONY

In commemoration of American flag day, a flag ceremony will be held at the city baseball diamond at 12:45 tomorrow afternoon prior to the opening game of the Escanaba-Chatham doubleheader. The American Legion will conduct the ceremony with Commander Vic Johnson in charge.

Manager Derwin will not select his starting hurler until game time, but it will be either Al Adams or Jocko Beck. In all probability, the starting lineup and batting order will be Dick Lough, shortstop; the high school sensation; Jack Schils, leftfield; Bob L'Houillier, thirdbase; Bob Dufour, centerfield; Ron Moran, firstbase; Ralph McLeod, rightfield; Gus Maycunich, catch; Ray Berndt, second baseman, and either Adams or Beck on the mound.

Available for duty will be Ed DeGrand, Jim Moore, Bob "Batting Bud" Kenneally, Walter Flath, Bob Ramspeck and Jack Schwalbach.

The Escanaba Legion Cubs' starters and batting order will be Joe Aiken, second base; "Tip" LeGault, shortstop; Charley Olson, third base; Dick Barron, leftfield; Buddy Weber, first base; "Jo Jo" Johnston, rightfield; Jim Marsieck, centerfield; Ron Sedenquist, catcher, and Ray Menard, pitcher.

Brewers Strong 2nd
In AA Pennant Race
(By The Associated Press)

Pitcher Al Lyons pitched and batted Milwaukee to victory Friday night to keep the Brewers hot on the heels of Indianapolis, the American Association leader. The hefty right-hander slammed a two-run homer to give the Brewers a 5-3 count over Louisville.

Indianapolis maintained a 4½ edge in front by beating Minneapolis 15-8.

BRONCOS BEAT U-M
Champaign, Ill., June 12 (AP)—Western Michigan and Illinois tangle today for the fourth NCAA district baseball title and the right to play in the Eastern NCAA finals at Winston-Salem, N. C., next week. The Broncos of Western Michigan advanced through yesterday's semi-final round by upsetting Michigan—co-champion of the Big Nine with Illinois—6 to 3 with a five run eighth inning. The big round featured homers by Carleton Coss and Bob Pollard.

KATHERINE'S BACK—Katherine Rawls executes a graceful dive into a Miami Beach pool, where the versatile veteran is training for the trials which she hopes will take her to the Olympic Games in London this summer. The Fort Lauderdale star, holder of many swimming and diving championships, will compete only in diving. She was a member of the U. S. women's swimming team in the Games in Berlin in 1936.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS "It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Ronald Olson, former member of the Delta county National Guard unit who enlisted in the Army a few months ago, has suddenly blossomed into a golfer of some renown in Army circles.

The young fellow, who used to caddy at the Escanaba Golf club, qualified fifth high in a field of 25 competing at the Memorial Road Country club in Columbia, Ga., for the right to enter the Third Army golf tournament in Washington, D. C. next month.

His 54-hole qualifying score was 36-35-36-41-40-44—234, which constitutes fairly good punching in any amateur league. Olson is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., as a personnel clerk in the student training regiment.

Don Feller, Escanaba pro, says he remembers Olson very well but not as a golfer. He was an active caddy, but he did not know that he played the game very much.

All of which provides further proof that caddying is a good introduction to the game to those who desire to string together a few pars in their more mature years.

Feller, incidentally, had a par 36 on his home course on the evening with three pars, three birdies and three bogeys. Add 24's shot at the Escanaba course: Ray Hirs with a 4-1-2 start against a par of 5-4-3.

People's Bar and Taverns hold top positions in the American league as local softball loops move into their third week of play. In the National League, Hughes-Tomlinson is in first place, the only undefeated team in either circuit, with an enviable record of five straight victories.

White Birch furnished the week's biggest surprise by edging the league-leading People's Bar, 2 to 1, at Flat Rock. Northland Stores displayed plenty of power in knocking K-C from the ranks of undefeated in a feature game at Memorial Field Wednesday.

Next Thursday night the co-leaders of the American league, People's Bar and the Taverns,

Will Hard Luck Continue To Dog Poor Sam Snead?

Los Angeles, June 12 (AP)—Will hard luck continue to dog Sam Snead in the U. S. Open Golf championship?

The final 36 holes of the big fairway derby got underway today and the big question was expected to be answered about the time dusk began setting in on the Riviera course.

Slammin' Sam, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., held a one stroke lead as he teed off for the third round. His 138 for 36 holes was compiled with a pair of 69's. He was four under par for the distance. The 7020-yard long layout plays to a standard 71.

Two tough rounds within the day's span faced the 57 survivors. Snead had the stamina to come through with colors flying. The doorkeeper in the past, in the 1937 open at Detroit he finished second to Ralph Guldahl's record setting 281. The latter finished with a late rush after it appeared Snead was the new champ.

In 1939 at Philadelphia, Snead took an 8 on the 72nd hole whereas a normal par 5 would have won him the title. And at St. Louis last year, he missed a 30 ft. inch putt for the win, then lost to Lew Worsham in the playoff.

Treading on his heels were the tournament favorite and PGA champion, Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., and Bobby Locke of Johannesburg, South Africa. Their 139's armed each with a formidable scoring weapon.

Little Jim Turnesa of Elmsford, N. Y., was nicely placed with 71-69-14.

Defending champion Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa., was within striking distance with a 141. Tied at the same count were the leading amateur and recently-crowned British amateur titleholder, Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O.; Jimmy Demaret of Houston; Charles Congdon of Tacoma, Wash., and George Schneider of Ogden, Utah.

MICHIGAN SCORES
Los Angeles, June 12 (AP)—The following second-round scores were turned in by Michigan entries in the U. S. Open golf championship:

M. (Chuck) Harbert, Northville, 72-72—144.
Horton Smith, Detroit, 75-74—149.

Robert Gajda, Royal Oak 79-75—154.

Frank Pepp, Jr., Grosse Pointe Farms, 78-75 (withdrew).

Mike Dietz, Grosse Pointe Farms, 73-76—149.

Ed Furgul, Royal Oak, 7-73—149.

Lamprey Menacing Trout in Streams Of Delta County

Gladstone, June 12—Lampreys are now menacing trout in the streams of Delta county. Recently sportsmen report catching lampreys in the upper reaches of the West Branch of the Whitefish River and a number of them were taken from the Cliff hole below Trenary, Thursday, another was taken from the Hickmadow in the vicinity of the Macks cottage.

Houtteman Finally Wins One, But He Had To Bat In Winning Run Himself

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Young Art Houtteman of the Detroit Tigers finally has a victory—but he had to bat in the winning run himself to get it.

His single in the tenth inning drove Pat Mullin from third to give Detroit a 7 to 6 victory over the Washington Senators last night.

Since the start of the season Houtteman has taken his regular turns as starting pitcher and taken a few relief roles, losing eight straight games. Some of his mound performances have been excellent, and nearly all have been creditable, but the result was always the same.

Last night he was the last of a parade of five Detroit hurlers to face Washington, taking over in the seventh. He came to bat in the tenth after Mullin had tripled, and singled, him home with a sharp liner that caromed off shortstop Mark Christman's glove.

Then Art set the Senators down in the home half of the tenth—with the aid of a quick double play—and won that elusive victory on three and two thirds innings' work.

Christman opened the tenth with a single, the only hit given up by Houtteman after Stubby Overmire, Al Benton, Hal White and Bill Pearce had allowed seven. Al Evans sacrificed him to second. But pinch-hitter Jake Early lined to second baseman Eddie Lake, and Lake's quick toss to shortstop Johnny Lipon doubled Christman.

The Defeat was charged to Milo Candini, who followed Walter Masterson and Forrest Thompson to the mound for Washington.

The Senators scored off Overmire in each of the first three innings, getting single runs in the first two and a pair in the third. Stubby departed in the fourth after Detroit had put a pair of runs across to make it 4 to 2.

Benton set the Senators down in the fourth, but gave up another run in each of the next two innings. In the sixth he walked himself out of the game, issuing four bases on balls. Hal White took over, but was lifted for a pinch hitter in the seventh, when the Tigers tied the game with four runs.

George Kell's single and an error by centerfielder Earl Wooten sent in those tallies. Kell, who had four hits for the evening, came to bat with the bases loaded, and promptly slapped the ball into center.

Wooten fired wildly to third base, trying to nab Eddie Lake who had been on first. Lake and Kell both came home when the throw went wide.

After Billy Pierce had pitched to two batters in the seventh, striking out one and walking the other, Houtteman appeared and held the Nats' scores for the last four innings.

Hal Newhouse, who boasts the best record of any Tiger pitcher, goes after his seventh victory tomorrow. Ray Scarborough will oppose him.

Sunday Special
Two games are in store for those who attend Memorial Field Sunday night. The first game will be between Delta Hardware and NuWay Cleaners at 7:30. The Hardware defeated the Nuways in their first league game, 5-4.

In the second game Ted's Shell of Negaunee will play the Escanaba Merchants at 8:45. The Merchants are last year's Texaco Stars who defeated Ted's Shell, 14-6.

Redskins Lose, 9-3,
To Nahma; Play at Munising Tomorrow

Gladstone, June 12—The Gladstone Redskins of the Rainbow league took it on their collective chin from the Nahma nine of the Bay de Noc circuit in a feature game played here last evening. The score was 9-3.

Gladstone, victim of two straight 2-1 losses in regular Rainbow play the last two Sundays, will try to get back into winning stride against Munising on the latter's diamond tomorrow afternoon. It will be a regular Rainbow tilt.

Other Rainbow games on tap tomorrow are Chatham at Escanaba, Marquette at Manistique, Gwinn at Trenary and Diorite at Negaunee.

Citation Goes After Belmont Today To Complete Big Three

New York, June 12 (AP)—Citation, Calumet farm's wonder horse which took the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness with ease, today will go after the $100,000 Belmont Stakes, the final test in racing's triple crown.

A bulging crowd of 60,000 is expected to jam majestic Belmont course to see if what everybody says about the Calumet speedster is true.

Eight others, including Citation's stablemate, Calumet, have been entered for the mile and one half test for three-year-olds.

How many will parade postward at 4:45 p. m., (EDT), remains to be seen.

Others entered were Glen Ridge farm's Faraway, W. L. Brann's Escudra, Belair Stud's Golden Light, A. J. Sackett's Gasparilla, C. V. Whitney's Vulcan's Forge, William Helis' Salmagundi, and King Ranch's Better Self.

Cubs Knock Giants From Top Rung In Wide Open National

By Jack Hand
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Long-suffering Boston fans have two winners to cheer today—the first place Braves and Ted Williams of the Red Sox.

Billy Southworth's Braves, a pre-season pennant pick of many experts, finally edged into the lead in the rough-and-tumble National league scramble by downing St. Louis last night, 7-3.

New Magazine Is Offered To U. P.

A new magazine venture, "The Hiawathan," by and for people of Upper Michigan, has made its appearance on news stands.

The first issue features Escanaba in an article penned by Helen Cloutier of this city. Several interesting feature articles are offered, most of which are a well-written article on Michigan's ex-governor Chase S. Osborn.

Edited by William Koskela of Marquette, the magazine also features a directory of U. P. offices and a directory of events scheduled for this section during the summer. Ernest W. Skog is business manager.

Attractive in its yellow face and cover picture of Olive LaFave of NMCE, the "Hiawathan" has enjoyed a good first volume sale in Escanaba.

Illini Win Central Track; Porter Does 14 in High Hurdles

Milwaukee, June 12 (P)—The Central Collegiate conference outdoor track title was back in the University of Illinois trophy case today for the fourth time in six years.

The Illini, scoring in 13 of the 16 events, ran away with the 23rd Annual Central before 6,000 fans at Marquette stadium last night, scoring 53 1/2 points to 43 1/5 for second place Notre Dame.

Two meet records were broken as big nine athletes won 11 of the 16 events. Perfect weather conditions for the first time in 10 years, enabled better performances in all but three events—the shotput, discus and javelin.

In winning the meet, the Illini took the Knute K. Rockne trophy back home after a year's lapse when it was housed at Michigan State.

Individual winners for the champion Illini were George Walker in the 220-yard low hurdles, Norman Wasser in the shotput, and Waldemar Karlow in the two-mile and Dwight Edlmon, who tied with Richard Lennertson of Washington (Mo.) University in the high jump.

Army Has Olympic Boxing Prospect In Big Ross Virgo

Chicago, June 12 (P)—The army today was prepared to move in on the American Olympic finals at Boston later this month after assembling a 24-man squad from command posts throughout the world.

The team emerged from the finals of the army and air force tourney at Chicago Stadium last night which produced at least one red hot Olympic bet.

He is welterweight Ross Virgo Rochester, N. Y., of the European command which topped the title round with four knockouts.

Virgo's vicious scrap with Joe Lopez, champion of the Pacific Command, had a threat of 7,000 in an hour from start to finish in the evening's outstanding bout.

Virgo scored his 50th triumph without defeat in two years of military fighting with a three-round decision over Lopez.

Fliers Stage Mighty Selfridge Spectacle

BY FELIX B. WOLD
Selfridge Field, Michigan—From almost any point of view, perhaps even a jet plane pilot's at 600 MPH, an army show rates as No. 1.

The armed forces put on a mighty one here Thursday shaking the countryside with bomb blasts and the ground under the feet of 6,000 spectators.

In addition, an artful helicopter plucked an alumn out of a supposed ocean and a huge airplane virtually leaped into the sky with her 30 tons weight—via jet propulsion.

This army air base was busy today preparing for a repeat performance Saturday—its public show.

Thursday's big mock assault on the base by more than 100 warplanes and about 1,000 men, along with certain amphibious operations, was for the private consumption of industry.

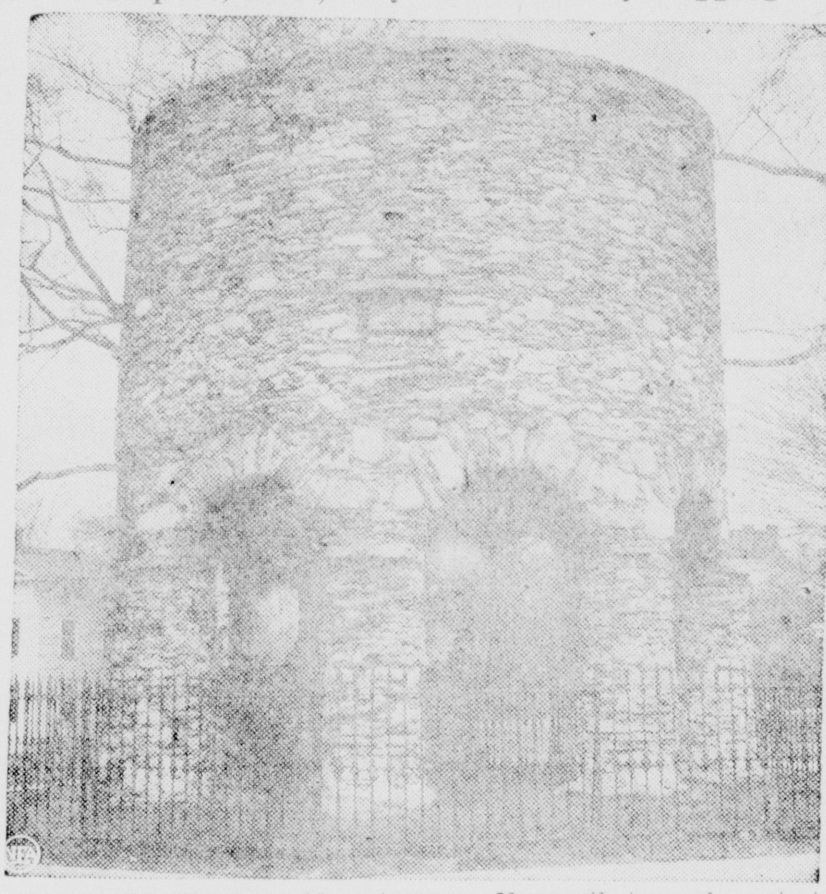

The armed forces brought in the American Ordnance Association, currently in session in Detroit, to see a demonstration of the armament that comes out of factories.

The Vikings vs. Benedict Arnold

Argument Over Who Built Ancient Tower In Newport, R. I., May Be Settled by Digging

Inside Newport's old stone tower is a fireplace, here being pointed out by Park Commissioner Jerry Sullivan.

Center of a 150-year-old controversy, Newport's tower is protected by an iron fence. This month archaeologists will go inside and try to end the argument.

Newport, R. I. (NEA)—The 150-year-old argument over who built the ancient, sawed-off stone tower in the middle of Newport may be settled once and for all this summer.

One faction insists the tower is a home-built relic, erected by Benedict Arnold, first governor of the Rhode Island colony, whose will refers to the structure as "my stone-built windmill."

But others are sure that a little digging will prove the tower was built by the Vikings, before the settlers from Boston and England ever came to Newport.

This month they're going to start digging. The excavation will be conducted by a committee of the Society of American Archaeology, headed by Dr. John Otis Drew of the Peabody Museum at Harvard University. The experts will seek evidence of a foundation supporting the wall of the tower.

which they hope will be proof that will pre-date the white settlement of New England by 500 years or more.

The Vikings, according to the archaeologists, established colonies along the New England coast and had a permanent settlement at Newport as early as 1100. They point to records which show that Bishop Eric Gypsson of Greenland made a voyage to America about the year 1300—presumably to visit the Christian colony which they contend had already been established in Rhode Island.

They also call attention to the existence of old letters and documents in Norway and Sweden which indicate that the Newport colony contributed to the Crusades in the form of timber, whale oil, grapes and other products. But their most emphatic arguments center about the old stone structure itself.

Its tower, they state, closely resembles hundreds of round churches built in Europe during the Middle Ages. The second-story fireplace in the tower has its prototype in many Medieval round churches patterned after the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem, and that the projecting cornice of the structure's eight supporting pillars originally held up the beams and rafters of a surrounding corridor.

According to Jerry J. Sullivan, Newport Park Commission head, the full story of the tower's history is still a mystery. Incidentally, Ben and Jimmy Jones claim the tower is getting better all the time. How come two of this season's sweetest big league players are Cleveland's Lemon and Cincinnati's Sauer?

Recruiting Is A Right Neighborly Southern Custom

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, June 12 (P)—Officials of the strictly professional Basketball of America are somewhat perturbed because their athletes want to play for money this summer. That's not quite as silly as it sounds. Seems the players are being approached to play in the "Borscht Circuit." The Catskill Mountain summer hotels that feature basketball to entertain their guests. The club owners shudder at the possibility of an $8,000 a season player getting a busted leg or shoulder separation playing on an outdoor court for maybe $100 a week and they're not sure from the wording of their own contract that they can forbid such activity. Another angle is that most of the players are college boy-players and bellhops, presumably playing just for fun. Their eligibility might be tainted by mingling with the pros and the B. A. A., like the pro football leagues and unlike baseball, wants to remain on the best of terms with the colleges.

Hi. Neighbor
When Frank Howard, Clemson College football coach, escaped from the state of South Carolina to speak to an alumni group in Burlington, N. C., recently, he didn't overlook an opportunity to drop in for a visit with Earl Wrightsborough, Burlington high school tackle. Frank rang the bell and who opened the door but Beattie Feathers, whose North Carolina State team is second on Clemson's schedule next fall?

Weak End Notes
The pro tennis championships, starting today at Forest Hills, have received considerably more space in the local newspapers before today than the $100,000 Belmont stakes, starting today.

In one afternoon, the Belmont will draw more customers than the full week of tennis. The feeling is mutual. Incidentally, Ben and Jimmy Jones claim the tower is getting better all the time. How come two of this season's sweetest big league players are Cleveland's Lemon and Cincinnati's Sauer?

Marcus McNabb Is Hurt By Falling Log at Paper Mill

Marcus S. McNabb, 63, of 810 South 13th street, yesterday suffered ten fractured ribs when struck by a log that rolled from a pulpwood pile at the Escanaba Paper company mill yards, and today is reported in "fair" condition at St. Francis hospital.

The accident occurred while McNabb was employed in the annual work of measuring the Paper company's pulp wood piles. He was on the ground when a log rolled down the pile, striking him in the chest. The other end of the log struck the ground and the log bounced, hitting him a second time.

McNabb was unconscious for a few minutes and then regained consciousness to call for help. He was given first aid treatment at the Paper company plant hospital and then removed to St. Francis hospital in an ambulance.

He is expected to be hospitalized for several months, and for the present he is not permitted to have visitors.

Luciano, Deported To Italy, Denies He Still Has Rackets

Rome, June 12 (P)—Charles "Lucky" Luciano feels he hasn't been done right by in the papers and wants to "set the record straight."

So the former New York vice lord, who was deported to Italy in 1946, called in correspondents yesterday and proceeded to brief them in forcible—if ungrammatical—terms. Sipping a vermouth, the dapper, graying Luciano denied:

1. That he owned a string of Rome night clubs featuring girlie shows. "There's no truth in it," he said. "I don't own no clubs. I don't intend to."
2. That Raffaele Liquori, described as front man for a string of night spots, was his lieutenant "he's not even my buck private. I didn't even know him until he went to court" (in the celebrated New York vice case which got Luciano a 30-year sentence.)
3. That he spent three days in a Palermo jail while police there checked up on his activities—"no truth in it."
4. That he was handling dope—"there's a hell of a lot of easier ways to make money; I'm not crazy."

Food Supply Cut Off For Berlin

Stopping the traffic on a permanent basis would be much more serious than the Soviet restrictive measures in Berlin which raised a crisis last April. The Western powers circumvented that by flying in passengers to meet the needs of 2,000,000 Germans dependent on the Western powers.

British officials said the Russians contended they had to embargo freight shipments into Berlin because the city was congested. The British retorted that they were not aware of any congestion.

Meanwhile an American military government official said Soviet-sponsored German Communists are attempting to foment strike waves in the American and British sectors of Berlin, ostensibly to protest Western recognition of anti-Communist leadership of Berlin's Trade Union Federation.

This week has witnessed an increasing controversy over travel between the Russian and British-American occupation zones.

The Russians today continued to turn back hundreds of Germans seeking to travel into their zone from Western Germany on the grounds that new international travel documents were required.

Refugees Stranded

At one point on the U. S.-Soviet zone border the Russians closed a station where exchange is made of refugees and illegal border-crossers.

U. S. authorities said if this action were extended the American zone would be "stuck with" thousands of Germans who had come in illegally from the Russian zone.

The Berlin locomotives that the U. S.-Soviet dispute is over rolled to the Russian-controlled German railroad but have been put at the disposal of the Americans. The dispute was first disclosed by the Russian-controlled press, which alleged that the Americans were interfering with the operations of the railways by placing soldiers on nine locomotives at Anhalter depot in the U. S. sector of the city.

The Russian-controlled German News Agency claimed last night the directors of the railroad system complained they needed these locomotives and U. S. control of them was intolerable.

Michigan to the west side of the U. P.

L. D. Randall, editor of the Norway Current, in Norway, was placed at the head of a committee which will seek support of U. P. civic and county groups.

Among the representatives at the meeting were Joseph Colantonio, chairman of the Dickinson county board of supervisors, and Edgar Nelson, engineer-manager of the county highway department.
